Form DR-1 Statement of Property and Liabilities of Respondent

Instructions: This form must be completed in full and filed (together with a completed Form 14 if child support is an issue) prior to obtaining a court setting. Local Rule 68.4. If additional space is required, add a page indicating the section number and supply all information requested. Show only dollar amounts. Rounding to the nearest dollar. Failure to submit this form may result in the prohibition of the presentation of affirmation evidence of the information recited herein.

Proper completion of this form requires disclosure of all Marital and Non-Marital Property owned by either party, either separately or jointly, whether in the possession of the parties, or in the possession of the third party.

Definition- Marital and Non-Marital Property 452.330.2 RSMo.

As used in this document, Marital Property means all property acquired by either spouse subsequent to the marriage except:

- 1. Property acquired by gift, bequest, devise or descent;
- 2. Property acquired by exchange for property acquired prior to the marriage or in exchange for property acquired by gift, bequest, devise, or descent;
 - 3. Property acquired by a spouse after a decree of legal separation;
 - 4. Property excluded by valid agreement of the parties; and
- 5. The increase in value of property acquired prior to the marriage or pursuant to subdivisions (1) to (4) of this subsection, unless marital assets, including labor, have contributed to such increases and then only to the extent such contribution.

The excepted property is Non-Marital Property. All other property is presumed to be Marital Property.
