Year 6 Writing for Selective (CBT)

Selective school writing test doesn't just test creativity or grammar—they assess a student's ability to think clearly, argue logically, and write compellingly under pressure. That's why our Writing for Selective course is built around the two foundational pillars of selective school exam writing success:

- ❖ Narrative Writing: Crafting vivid, structured, and engaging stories from a given prompt.
- ❖ Persuasive Writing: Presenting logical, well-reasoned arguments that influence and convince.

Every lesson is designed to build core writing competencies and apply them to the most frequently tested formats in real selective school writing test—such as newspaper reports, emails, diary entries, and advice pieces.

What Makes This Course Different?

- A clear focus on the essence of the exam, not just surface-level topics
- A structured learning journey that builds real writing mastery
- Guided practice in high-frequency exam formats
- Simulates real exam conditions with Computer-based-style writing tasks.
- Emphasis on timed writing to build confidence under pressure

By the end of this course, students will:

- ✓ Build core skills in both narrative and persuasive writing.
- ✓ Apply these skills across key formats like stories, emails, diaries, and reports.
- ✓ Learn to write with clarity, structure, and purpose—under strict time limits.
- ✓ Build confidence to tackle any writing task in the selective exam presents

Whether your child is aiming for a selective school placement or simply wants to become a stronger writer, this course provides the tools and strategies to succeed. Enrol Today!
