

Happy

Thanksgiving

Directions

Use finger paints to have your child put their finger on the corresponding color of circle for each “feather”. If your child dislikes paint, you can also have them practice color in each circle with the matching color. For early learners, “dot” markers are excellent for putting a matching colored dot in each circle!

