

Sanctum

Sanctum Southampton is an apartment in a listed building, that was created as an intimate home away from home. It's unique, private and sexy - the only one of its kind.

Sanctum was created by Sharon and her husband after they started travelling all around the UK and Europe, staying in luxury hotels and private rental listings. They specifically looked for boutique-style properties with a bit of sexiness to them - but were always left feeling like something was missing.

50 Shades of Grey opened up a new market of couples wanting to try different things together, without the embarrassment of feeling a little too kinky or afraid to try something out of their comfort zone, so Sharon decided to create Sanctum with the intention of offering just that: a boutique, boudoir-style home for other like-minded couples to enjoy, offering a private lockbox feature that means guests check themselves in and are alone from the moment they arrive, so everything is completely private. What you do is your business and no one else's - isn't that the way it should be?

It took the couple 2 years to completely refurbish the entire property, meticulously and lovingly restoring everything from top to bottom: from finding specialists to make the bespoke coving and their trusted carpenter to make all the beading for the walls, to the black toilet which travelled all the way from Italy to bring back the feel of the original interior features that you would expect to find in a building of the late 1800's, all with uncompromised luxury at the forefront of their intentions.

The colour scheme of blacks and golds throughout brings sex appeal to the property, with the solid cast iron radiators and the featured 6ft leather bed in the centre of the bedroom, a mirrored ceiling directly above it. There's also the gold dancing pole surrounded by mirrors, the red lights highlighting the leather padded wall with their bespoke gold wrist and ankle cuffs, and the leather padded doors throughout really do add the final touches to give the place the WOW factor.

If you'd like to know how luxurious that bed is - well, you'll just have to come and stay to find out for yourself.

Their naughty night packages start with the hiring of the bedroom accessories - cuffs, whips, floggers, spanking cane, handcuffs, blindfolds, bondage rope. The personal packages can be whatever you want them to be; from sexy underwear to the full BDSM packages, nothing is too much. Sharon and her husband ask that you tell them what you want, and they will do their best to source it and help set everything up for you. They also offer bottles of bubbly at an extra cost, and are even happy to arrange flowers being delivered for your arrival. They try their best to help personalise your stay, so whatever you are thinking or wanting, all you have to do is ask.

For those that just want somewhere sexy to stay without it feeling too in your face or too kinky, you can choose to have all the bedroom accessories removed, just leaving the naughty ornaments and pictures that you'll see throughout the property. The idea is that guests never feel uncomfortable or like they are walking into a dungeon - Sharon prides herself on making your time at Sanctum something to remember.

When it comes to the guests at Sanctum Southampton, they are varied: from young adventurous couples, to the older generation that aren't scared of a little bit of kink; they've even been known to host wedding nights! The apartment is designed to appeal to everyone. You can even hire out Sanctum for modelling and photoshoots, it's the perfect backdrop for your risqué pics!
