SUCCESS STORIES

THE AGENT EXPERIENCE

“The innovation, collaboration, and financial model offered by eXp Luxury is second to none.”

“Joining eXp Luxury has allowed me to focus on running my businesses, pouring into my people and clients, all while netting a greater profit and eliminating undue stress! It also has allowed me to recruit more talented team members and agents - my retention is at an all time high, which is not always the case in our business. The journey has truly gotten me excited again, and given me a renewed passion for the industry as a whole, as well as helped me and my business improve. We are stronger and wiser now....and having a lot more fun!! “

Jana Caudill

SUCCESS STORIES

Tina Caul grew from $70M to $440M after coming to eXp.

"I was with KW for over two years and was struggling with growing my team – we never exceeded $70M in volume. My first year with eXp I grew to $134M in volume and now, three years later, we are passing $400M. One key to our success is the open collaboration that eXp Luxury offers. It's brought me more relationships with top luxury agents all over the world. I have been able to exchange ideas at a high level which have helped my business grow."

SUCCESS STORIES

Ed Kaminsky scaled from 5 agents to 30 agents within one year.

“I was able to learn from others who had done it before, thanks to the mass collaboration among agents within eXp. Everyone was opening their playbooks – it was something I did not expect, and to me this is the greatest thing about eXp. And thanks to eXp Luxury’s global advertising program, we’re able to compete with any luxury brand for the biggest listings in our market.”

SUCCESS STORIES

“eXp Luxury empowers me to be a real estate entrepreneur, not just a real estate salesperson.”

“I was a founding agent for Compass in NE Florida, and before that, I was with Sotheby’s for 8 years. All of the traditional luxury brokerages put me in a box: a box on branding, on growth, on how I ran my business. eXp allows me to run my business the way I want to, and build lasting value for myself and my brand, not just the brokerage. With the new Luxury Division, I am saving over $20,000 real dollars from what I was spending just a year ago for the same exact marketing tools and platforms.”
