TORONTO, Sept. 29, 2021 /CNW/ - Blue Deer Capital Partners, a Toronto-based Exempt Market Dealer which advises mission driven entrepreneurs, is pleased to announce the addition of Bradley Trotter to its Advisory Board, as its inaugural advisor.

"We are thrilled to welcome Brad Trotter as our first Advisory Board Member. As a leading operator and financier, Brad aligns with Blue Deer's vision of surrounding itself and its companies with world-class business leaders from a multitude of backgrounds." said Dan McClure, Founding Partner at Blue Deer.

Most recently, Brad served as Global Head of Debt at Timbercreek Asset Management where he defined strategy, led all direct debt investing, and expanded the platform to the U.S. and Ireland. Prior to Timbercreek, Brad spent over 26 years in various business and finance leadership roles at General Electric. At GE Capital Real Estate, he served as President of North America, managing a $22B portfolio of private direct debt, equity and joint venture investments across the U.S., Canada, and Mexico. Prior to leading the North American platform, he served as GE Capital Real Estate's Managing Director of Canada ($5B) and was the European CFO ($20B, 18 countries).

"The Blue Deer team has a unique platform and approach, and I look forward to utilizing my experience, expertise and network , to accelerate the growth and success of our clients."

Bradley Trotter has 30+ years of commercial real estate, financial services, and capital markets experience, leading and directing diverse, global teams. He has led restructurings, turn-arounds, global expansions, M&A, joint venture and organic growth strategies in both business and finance leadership roles. Brad has lived in Canada, Europe and multiple US cities; he holds an MBA from the Kellogg School of Management at Northwestern University and a Bachelor of Commerce (Honors) from the Smith School of Business at Queen's University, Canada.
