THE BROTHERHOOD GATHERS ONCE AGAIN FOR

GRAND Chapter

Nearly 1,000 undergraduates, alumni and guests gathered in New Orleans, Louisiana from July 21-24 to celebrate the first Grand Chapter since 2018. The weekend began with a Second-Line Parade that marched us from the event venue to the Kickoff Event at the House of Blues, reserved exclusively for Alpha Sigma Phi. There, brothers and guests enjoyed renewed brotherhood and live music.

The legislative body of Grand Chapter convened as our undergraduate delegates, Alumni Association representatives, past Grand Senior Presidents and Grand Councilors paraded their chapter and school flags in the Opening Ceremonies before discussing business in the Friday morning portion of Plenary.

The afternoon portion of Plenary on Friday heard a State of the Fraternity address from outgoing GSP, Greg Kroencke, Illinois '91, the presentation of a Grant check from the Foundation to the Fraternity and saw the installation of the new Grand Council. (Navigate to Page 4 to see a list of our newly installed Grand Council.)

Our alumni and guests enjoyed a reception at the World War II Museum in downtown New Orleans. The evening consisted of free access to parts of the museum, performances by the "Victory Bells" and the presentations of jackets to the newest members of the Red Jacket Society. (Navigate to Page 11 to see a list of all members of the Red Jacket Society.)

We concluded the weekend with the Cardinal & Stone Awards Gala to honor our newest Fraternity Award winners. 'For He's an Alpha Sig' was sung as 65 chapters, 10 undergraduate members and eight alumni were recognized for their efforts and contributions toward the Old Gal. (Navigate to Page 5 to see a list of our 2021-22 Fraternity Award winners.)
