CHAPTER COUNCIL ANNUAL REPORT

INTRODUCTION

The Chapter Advisor is expected to complete the Chapter Council Annual Report each year, which assists in measuring the relationship between the advisors and the chapter. The Chapter Advisor and Chapter Council should use the prompts, as well as the descriptions, to guide their coaching. The Chapter Council Annual Report is provided on the Alpha Sigma Phi website and is due on April 15th, 2026.

Instructions: There are 10 possible points to score with 13 point opportunities. To complete the checklist, check each box that applies to you and your Chapter Council.

Section 1: Number of events per year attended (in-person or virtually) by the Chapter Advisor, or a member of the Chapter Council. The events include Chapter meetings, Prudential Board meetings, or Chapter events (i.e. recruitment events, brotherhood events, ritual ceremonies, chapter retreats, etc.). Dates, events, and who attended must be provided.

1. Minimum of 10 events in an academic year attended by Chapter Advisor.
2. Minimum of 8 events attended by member of Chapter Council (not including the Chapter Advisor).

Section 2: Number of Chapter Council meetings hosted by the Chapter Advisor during the academic year. Meetings may be either in-person or virtually. Documentation should be provided within 30 days of the meeting. If you meet both minimums, check both boxes.

3. Minimum of 3 meetings per academic year.
4. Minimum of 5 meetings per academic year.
