

Travels with Doris Invites you Saturday, April 17, 2021

Each spring, the Wamego Chamber hosts the Tulip Festival in beautiful Wamego City Park — full of handmade food, crafts and art vendors;

If you have never ventured to Wamego during the tulip season, you are missing out! It is well worth the trip. Timing is everything and if we are blessed with tulips blooming you can enjoy these brilliant flowers by the Historic Museum and Prairie Town Village, which includes the Schonhoff Dutch Mill. Also, tulips are found throughout the Wamego City Park, downtown Wamego, near the Wamego Public Library, Caboose Park and Welcome Wamego Corner (Hwy 99 & Hwy 24).

Also Included:

Who doesn't love Oz? Admission included Follow the path of the yellow brick road throughout the museum and view over 100 years of Oz history. Rare OZ artifacts such as original MGM 1939 movie production notes and props from the Broadway musical Wicked are also on display.

Also open the Colombian Theater, a richly historic music hall from the turn of the 20th century

Kaw Valley Quilters -Quilt Show - Located at Wamego's Senior Center (Same hours as festival)

On your own . . .Oz Winery is located in the heart of Downtown Wamego, one block away from the Columbian Theatre & Oz Museum. All wines are made on site by Head Winemaker and Co-Owner Noah Wright who hand crafts varieties of red, white and blush
