

The Fourth National Conference of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Transport and Community Services (NATSIC)

Wednesday 8 September and Thursday 9 September

Doltone House Conference Centre Pyrmont (Sydney)

Whether it be social inclusion, health, education, employment, housing or any Closing the Gap priorities, easing transport disadvantage is key.

This is an event of national significance and provides opportunity for people from all sectors to contribute to solutions.

The event is the fourth National Event organised by NATSIC, the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Transport and Community Services Corporation, whose vision is to eliminate transport disadvantage for every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Person in Australia.

The conference also provides great networking opportunities through networking breaks, an evening networking function and an Awards Night and Conference Dinner with live entertainment provided by The Dale Huddleston Band.

Speakers include:

Donna Murray, CEO Indigenous Allied Health Australia

Graham Aitken, CEO of Aboriginal Community Services

Frank Quinlan Executive Royal Flying Doctors

Dr Ben Gauntlett, Disability Discrimination Commissioner, Human Rights Commission

SUPER EARLY BIRD RATES FOR THOSE WHO REGISTER BY 30 APRIL 2021

Registration to attend this two day event is $900 per person however for those who register by 30 April the cost is only $630 per person, a 30% discount.

Registration includes all conference meals and evening events including conference dinner.

To register and pay by card please go to: <https://www.trybooking.com/book/sessions?eid=682673>

If you prefer payment by invoice simply email the names of those attending to pauline@alliancingforums.com and we will reply email confirmations and details.

Enquiries welcome (02) 9659 2602

RISK FREE REGISTRATIONS

Doltone House operates to strict COVID guidelines

In the unlikely circumstance that the 2021 Conference is rescheduled full refunds will be offered.

CONFERENCE HOTELS

Accommodation discounts with several nearby hotels have been negotiated and on registration we can advise you of those options or call us on (02) 9659 2602

NATSIC
TRANSPORT & COMMUNITY SERVICES

Sponsors

Doctor Patricia Cullen, Research Fellow, University of NSW

Doctor Scott Hollier, CEO, Australian Centre for Accessibility

Terry O'Toole, CEO Transit Care, Gold Coast

Lyndon Stevenson, CEO of CTST Tasmania and Chair of Australian Community Transport Association, the National Peak Body for Community Transport

Transport Engineer, Julieta Rottemberg

Harry Harun, Chair of NATSIC and Senior Manager Aboriginal Community Services South Australia

Conference Assistance

Potential Sponsors

If you would be interested in sponsoring this event and helping NATSIC reduce Aboriginal Disadvantage please contact us on (02) 9659 2602

NATSIC
TRANSPORT & COMMUNITY SERVICES

Terry Chenery, formerly with NSW Police Force, NSW Ombudsman, Aboriginal Affairs, Aboriginal Justice Advisory Council and former CEO of Link-Up Aboriginal Corporation.

Terry will chair our conference and moderate some of our Q&A Panels.

Jim Golden Brown

Jim Golden-Brown CEO National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Transport and Community Services Corporation will be our Conference Leader, Host and Manager

Other speakers announced progressively and will include:

- Government Ministers
- Aboriginal Business Leaders
- Transport Sector Innovators
- Government Decision Makers
- Community Sector Leaders
- Researchers and Academics