

Sydney 3-4 June 2020

Connecting Nations - Driving Innovation Sydney 3 & 4 June 2020

The Fourth National Conference of NATSIC - Doltone House Darling Harbour Sydney
Wednesday 3 June 2020 & Thursday 4 June 2020

- Speakers will be progressively confirmed and include:
 - Government Ministers
 - Aboriginal Business Leaders
 - Transport Sector Innovators
 - Government Decision Makers
 - Community Sector Leaders
 - NFP Movers and Shakers
 - Researchers and Academics

Whether it be social inclusion, health, education, employment, housing or any Closing the Gap priorities, easing transport disadvantage is key. This is an event of national significance and provides opportunity for people from all sectors to contribute to solutions.

This is an event of national significance and is organised by NATSIC whose vision is to eliminate transport disadvantage for every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Person in Australia.

The conference also provides great networking opportunities through breaks and evening events.

Enquiries welcome (02) 9659 2602

Investment

Full registration rates are $900 per person but early bird rates of $630+GST will apply to all people who register prior to 29 February.

This represents a 30% discount to attend this exciting event.

Registration includes all conference meals and evening events including the conference dinner.

To register there are no forms to complete. Simply email the names of those attending to Pauline at pauline@alliancingforums.com and we will reply email confirmations/details.

Innovation Roundtable conversations. insight. experience.