

Connecting Nations Driving Innovation

The Fourth National Conference of NATSIC
Doltone House Darling Harbour Sydney
Wednesday 3 June 2020 - Thursday 4 June 2020

Communities and people facing transport disadvantage face big challenges. Whether it be social inclusion, health, education, employment, housing or any of the Closing the Gap priorities, easing transport disadvantage plays a huge role.

Attending this thought leading, innovative and exciting conference provides opportunities for your organisation and you to show support for easing transport disadvantage for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People throughout Australia.

And be involved in determining possible solutions.

This is a great opportunity for Not-for-Profit, Community, Local Government, Transport and Private Sector people. Organised by NATSIC, the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Transport and Community Services Corporation.

NATSIC's vision is to eliminate transport disadvantage for every Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Person in Australia .

Our Speakers and Panellists will be confirmed in January and will include:

- Government Ministers
- Aboriginal Business Leaders
- Aboriginal Community Service Leaders
- Transport Sector Innovators
- Government Decision Makers
- Community Sector Thought Leaders
- NFP Sector Movers and Shakers
- Researchers and Academics

During our 2019 National Conference speakers included The Hon. Ken Wyatt MP then Federal Minister for Aged Care and Indigenous Health .
