

Flower Industry Next Generation Industry Leadership Forum

Rydges (Fortitude Valley) Brisbane - Saturday 24 August – 1pm to 4pm
(including lunch on arrival)

This Brisbane Forum is the fourth run in various locations throughout Australia all aimed at showcasing the benefits of membership and involvement in Flower Industry Groups.

Anyone who works in the Australian Flower Industry can register and free attendance will be provided. Total numbers on each program will be limited so please let us know in advance that you will be attending.

This is a must-attend for talented people in the Flower Industry who see their future and the future of the industry permanently linked.

On each session there will be an idea generation session to produce ideas which will be communicated to current Flower Industry Leaders.

The funding that makes this event possible was provided from the Federal Governments "Leadership in Agriculture" initiative. It was provided to Flowers Australia in collaboration with the Flowers Growers Group of NSW; Flowers Victoria and Wildflowers Australia.

Forums will include:

- Panel sessions featuring people who have held horticultural and other industry leadership roles discussing their experiences
- An "Information and Innovation" session where your ideas on industry improvement and sustainability will be harnessed
- Presentations on the transferable skills you will grow from being involved on industry groups from governance skills; strategic thinking and seeing the big picture
- Information from the Commonwealth Department of Agriculture
- Video messages from current industry leaders
- Industry networking opportunities
