

The Man Den – Child Protection Notice

Please read the following and confirm you have understood the content by ticking the sign in sheet.

Whilst taking part in any of the activities in The Man Den you agree to ensure that:

- Any concerns you have about the welfare of a child, or you are told information that suggests a child is at immediate risk of harm will be immediately relayed to the event organiser, Kirsty Jones.
- You will ensure that you do not attempt to make contact with any young person (under 18) who attends The Man Den outside of The Man Den. You will not take a young person's personal contact details or connect, follow, contact them via any social media outlet.
- If you take any pictures/videos of your time at The Man Den you will seek permission of any child first (under 16). You will not post any pictures on social media unless you have a child's permission. Please exercise your discretion in this area. If you have any doubts, please speak with the event organiser.
- You do not use the toilets if someone is in there. We have a 1 person at a time rule.

We reserve the right to ask you to leave a session for any reason which does not fall in line with our vision, aims and safeguarding policy.

The Man Den – Photograph and Video Consent

Please read the following and confirm you have understood the content by ticking the sign in sheet.

I understand that I am taking part in an event that may involve me being filmed or photographed. I understand that the images captured will only be used to promote The Man Den's aims and activities which may include promotional material & media (including social media), fundraising and events. I thereby give my consent to my image being captured and used in this way.
