Any kind of human practice that takes time and effort and communicates a meaning or message.

any creative expression

It's were you do lots of crafts and lots of things with art

drawing

I consider it a way to let your imagination flow, and sometimes it can just be a way to mess around and have a little bit of fun.

In your own opinions/thoughts, where do you see art?

5 responses

Everywhere I go. In nature, in the city, I see it in graffiti, posters, flyers, murals, on people themselves in tattoos or clothing, even sometimes on trash on the ground.

depends what i see and what the intent is

I don't know

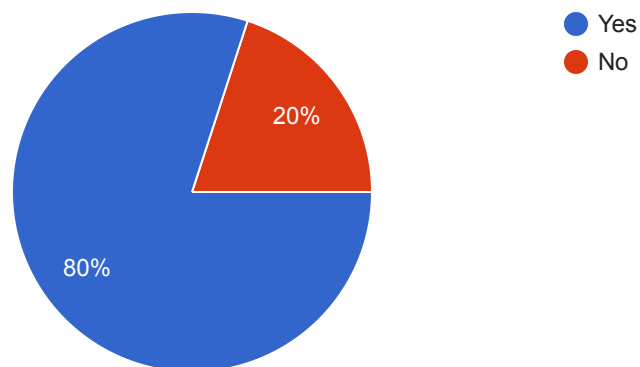

books

I see it often in my school, in the hallway, in the classrooms, and even in the blacktop area. I also see it in my house, some of it made by me, some made by my mom, and others are just random paintings that (I think) were here even before my parents moved in.
