Arts Through the Eyes of a Kid

Hello everyone! My name is Rachelle Baisa. I am a Graphic Design/Art BFA major who is also part of Cal State East Bay's University Honors Program. I am currently working on a magazine project that would encourage both kids and adolescents to pursue art as a career path, and could use your help!

The first part of my project is going to require some research. If you have any younger siblings or children between the ages of 6-17, please send/show this quick survey so I can record their answers. While this form is anonymous, please be honest about their answers! That includes if they like art or not, as the whole point is to see how art has benefitted their life or not, and help me understand how today's kids and adolescents feel about art.
