HUBZone Certified

Nice2GeekYou, LLC is a HUBZone-certified small business dedicated to delivering next-generation IT, advanced automation, and proactive security solutions. We specialize in bridging the gap between physical network infrastructure and software-defined cyber defense. In alignment with modern federal mandates like the Gold Eagle Initiative (EO 14409), we leverage proactive vulnerability scanning, AI-driven automation, and strict compliance architectures to secure critical infrastructure and commercial data pipelines. We provide nimble, scalable support to federal agencies and prime contractors looking to defend domestic networks with speed and precision.

Past Performances

Nice2GeekYou has a proven track record of engineering and securing mission-critical IT infrastructure for leading enterprise and commercial brands:

- The Home Depot: Engineered and deployed structured cabling and secure VoIP communication infrastructure for regional offices across multiple major locations.
- Quality INN: Delivered secure cloud management services, optimizing remote data accessibility and enterprise-level database security architectures.
- Collateral Towing: Deployed and managed enterprise-grade digital security camera networks across retail environments, ensuring strict compliance with public safety and physical security standards.
- Rainmaker Realty: Integrated high-reliability LAN systems and smart building technologies, maximizing network availability, data integrity, and end-user security.

Key Differentiators

- Socioeconomic Edge: Dual-certified as a Federal HUBZone Small Business and Texas HUB Certified entity, helping prime contractors seamlessly satisfy strict small-business participation goals.
- AI & Compliance Infusion: Uniquely positioned to manage both advanced AI automation and rigorous compliance structures (WISP/HIPAA), allowing us to handle rapid, automated threat environments.
- Scalable Delivery: Strategic partnerships through the TCI Mentor-Protégé Program, giving us the resource backing to scale and execute large-scale, high-priority projects rapidly.

Core Competencies

Nice2GeekYou, LLC delivers comprehensive, audit-ready IT and security systems for federal, state, and enterprise commercial clients.

Our primary technical offerings include:

- Cybersecurity & Vulnerability Management: Active, proactive security scanning, endpoint protection, and software vulnerability triage aligned with CISA and VINCE clearinghouse reporting standards.
- Software Supply Chain Risk & SBOM Auditing: Automated Software Bill of Materials (SBOM) audits and supply chain risk management using Snyk to detect and remediate high-severity CVEs across open-source dependencies.
- Compliance & Governance Architecture: Design and implementation of secure operational workflows meeting strict regulatory frameworks, including Workplace Information Security Programs (WISP), HIPAA, and federal audit readiness.
- AI Agents & Process Automation: Deployment of cutting-edge AI agents to optimize system performance, streamline data workflows, and reduce operational overhead.
- Local Area Network (LAN) & Systems Integration: End-to-end computer systems integration, cloud management, and robust network architecture optimization.
- Critical Infrastructure & Structured Cabling: High-speed data infrastructure installation (Cat6 to Fiber Optic), network switch configurations, and secure physical hardware mounting.
- Physical Security Systems: Secure deployment, management, and monitoring of enterprise IP security camera networks.
