Re: Submission of "Quintessence...The Novel" for Ecclesiastical and Content Review

Dear Administrator,

I respectfully submit my Novel Quintessence...A Spiritual Adventure! for consideration and review/approval.

Quintessence...A Spiritual Adventure! is a faith-centered allegorical novel written primarily for high school-aged readers, and adults. The story follows three best friends from Highland Park, Michigan—one Black, one White, and one Latino. A very special day which will change their lives and warm your heart forever. After winning Scholarships to the Interlochen Center for the Arts, they go to a neighborhood Park to celebrate. It's there, they reflect upon some of the challenges in their lives. They get depressed and fall asleep.

While sleeping the girls have a dream where they actually reach "Quintessence (Kwin-tes-sns) noun: 2) "the fifth element, above" Earth, Wind Fire and Water. The ethereal". This is where our story takes place. It is here, where the girls meet nine unforgettable characters. All of them unique, and in their own way prolific. In that they represent the very essence of life itself! The girls meet Flame (The Soul), and six manifestations of the Soul. They also meet "The Body", and The spirit. Each of these characters are meaningful, provocative. And they all are Quintessence. 1) "anything in it's purest and most concentrated form". The conversations between these characters and the girls will have something to say to every age group. God's Word is carefully intertwined throughout and is the backbone for this Teaching Ministry, while being completely entertaining and fun. Kids/teens will love it! And the adults will be moved.
