Name: Andrea Bucknor

Organization: reStart Charity

Role: Founder & Executive Director

Organization Overview:

reStart Charity is a community-based nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting youth and families impacted by the justice system. Through mentorship, advocacy, court and in-court support, legal navigation, life skills development, and restorative, wraparound services, reStart Charity works to empower young people, prevent further system involvement, and help individuals build stable, positive futures. The organization partners with families, legal professionals, churches, and community agencies to provide holistic, compassionate support that creates lasting change.
