

Olayinka Animashaun

Olayinka Animashaun is the founding executive director for Niagara African Caribbean culture organization, who has played an instrumental role in enriching the Niagara region, a beautiful area celebrated for its vibrant community and stunning landscapes. Under her leadership, the region has embraced its rich tapestry of African and Caribbean cultures, which reflect the diverse traditions, music, art, food, and festivals stemming from the histories and experiences of these diasporas.

Through her unwavering commitment to supporting settlement initiatives for individuals of African descent, Olayinka has fostered a spirit of inclusivity and celebration in the community. Her efforts have not only enhanced cultural understanding but also strengthened the bonds among residents, making the Niagara region a true example of unity
