

2019/20 Amanda Kupillas Dance Fall and Winter Class Descriptions – School Age and Adult

Mondays:

Advanced Adult Ballet ~ 8 weeks ~ NOTE: You can pay for the series or pay $20 per class as a drop-in

Monday: 9:30-10:30

Dates: 9/16, 9/23, 10/7, 10/21, 10/28, 11/4, 11/18, 11/25

Class Description: This is an advanced ballet class geared for students who have had prior ballet training.

Dress Code: Clothing that you can move in. Ballet slippers are preferable, but not necessary.

Cost: $136 or $20 walk in

Teacher: Tobin Eason

Ballet 7 ~ (For 4th and 5th grade) ~ 14 weeks

Monday: 4:00-5:00

Dates: 9/16, 9/23, 10/7, 10/21, 10/28, 11/4, 11/18, 11/25, 12/2, 12/9, 12/16, 1/6, 1/13, 1/27

Class Description: This class is an extension for students who took Ballet 5 or who would like to take an intermediate class. This class builds further on a beginner ballet curriculum. Classes will include barre-work, basic vocabulary and positions, and simple combinations of steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork, while in a warm and fun environment. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography. This class also focuses on students imaginations and builds on their ability to make their own dances.

Each week dancers will work towards a dance for the Nutcracker production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $336

Teacher: Tobin Eason

Advanced Ballet 1 ~ (For 2nd and 3rd grade) ~ 14 weeks

Monday: 5:15-6:30

Dates: 9/16, 9/23, 10/7, 10/21, 10/28, 11/4, 11/18, 11/25, 12/2, 12/9, 12/16, 1/6, 1/13, 1/27

Class Description: This class is for 2nd and 3rd grade looking for a more focused class. Classes will include barre-work, extend our vocabulary and positions, and will continue building on more advanced steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography, however at a more advanced level. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance for the Nutcracker Production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $336

Teacher: Tobin Eason

Tuesdays:

Adult Ballet/Lyrical ~ 8 weeks ~ NOTE: You can pay for the series or pay $20 per class as a drop-in

Tuesday: 9:30-10:30

Dates: 9/17, 9/24, 10/8, 10/15, 10/22, 10/29, 11/5, 11/12,

Class Description: This class is a great reason to get out of the house and have fun with fellow moms. This is a beginner /Intermediate ballet class. Most importantly this class is built for students to learn or relearn ballet technique in a fun environment. Classes will include barre and centre work, but will incorporate more of a modern style in the technique. Each class will end with a contemporary combination.

Dress Code: Clothing that you can move in. Ballet slippers are preferable, but not necessary.

Cost: $136 or $20 walk in

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Ballet 2: Kindergarten ~ 17 weeks

Tuesday: 3:30-4:30

Dates: 9/17, 9/24, 10/8, 10/15, 10/22, 10/29, 11/5, 11/12, 11/19, 11/26, 12/3, 12/10, 12/17, 1/7, 1/14, 1/21, 1/28

Class Description: This class is an extension for students who took Ballet 1 or who would like to take a beginner ballet class. This class builds further on a beginner ballet curriculum. Classes will include barre-work, basic vocabulary and positions, and simple combinations of steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork, while in a warm and fun environment. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance For the Nutcracker Production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $408

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Ballet 3: 1st Grade. ~ 17 weeks

Tuesday: 4:45-5:45

Dates: 9/17, 9/24, 10/8, 10/15, 10/22, 10/29, 11/5, 11/12, 11/19, 11/26, 12/3, 12/10, 12/17, 1/7, 1/14, 1/21, 1/28

Class Description: This class is an extension for students who took Ballet 2 and new students looking for a relaxed beginner ballet class. Classes will include barre-work, extend our vocabulary and positions, and will continue building on simple combinations of steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork, while in a warm and fun environment. This call will focus more on explore creative movement, but will still have the chance to learn about the great ballets and their choreography. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance for the Nutcracker production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $408

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Wednesday's:

Boys Creative Ballet ~ (For 1st and 2nd grade) ~ 14 weeks

Wednesday: 4:00-5:00

Dates: 9/18, 9/25, 10/2, 10/16, 10/23, 10/30, 11/6, 11/13, 11/20, 12/4, 12/11, 12/18, 1/8, 1/15, 1/22, 1/29

Class Description: Boys ballet introduces young male students to the fundamentals of ballet and movement in a nurturing, all-boys classroom setting. This is a beginner class. Dancers will develop musicality, coordination, flexibility and physical fitness in a fun environment. Dancers will have the chance to learn about choreographers as well as create their own choreography. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance for the Nutcracker Production.

Dress Code: Boys should wear comfortable clothing to move in and ballet slippers.

Cost: $322

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Advanced Ballet 2 ~ (For 1st and 2nd grade) ~ 16 weeks

Wednesday: 5:15-6:15

Dates: 9/18, 9/25, 10/2, 10/16, 10/23, 10/30, 11/6, 11/13, 11/20, 12/4, 12/11, 12/18, 1/8, 1/15, 1/22, 1/29

Class Description: This class is for 1st and 2nd graders looking for a more focused and advanced class. Classes will include barre-work, extend our vocabulary and positions, and will continue building on more advanced steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography, however at a more advanced level. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance for the Nutcracker Production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $384

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Thursday's

Ballet 5 ~ (For 2nd and 3rd grade) ~ 17 weeks

Thursday: 3:30-4:30

Dates: 9/19, 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/17, 10/24, 10/31, 11/7, 11/14, 11/21, 12/5, 12/12, 12/19, 1/9, 1/16, 1/23, 1/30

Class Description: This class is for 2nd and 3rd graders looking to take a fun ballet class. Classes will include barre-work, extend our vocabulary and positions, and will continue building on simple combinations of steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork, while in a warm and fun environment. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance for the Nutcracker Production.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $408

Teacher: Amanda Kupillas

Broadway Dance ~ (For 2nd and 4th grade) ~ 17 weeks

Thursday 4:45-5:45

Dates: 9/19, 9/26, 10/3, 10/10, 10/17, 10/24, 10/31, 11/7, 11/14, 11/21, 12/5, 12/12, 12/19, 1/9, 1/16, 1/23, 1/30

Class Description: Broadway Dance is a class for anyone who loves musical theatre and wants to tell a story with their body! The choreography will range from traditional to contemporary adaptations of the movement you see on Broadway. Musical theatre dancing includes all styles of dance and feels like a combination of ballet, tap, jazz, modern, and hip hop. Combinations will be to songs from some of your favorite shows including Hamilton, Frozen, Wicked, Annie, The Lion King, Beauty and the Beast, Aladdin, Matilda, Mary Poppins, and more!

Dress Code: TBD

Cost: $408

Teacher: Lily Thomas

Friday's

Adult Ballet/Lyrical ~ 8 weeks ~ NOTE: You can pay for the series or pay $20 per class as a drop-in

Friday: 9:30-10:30

Dates: 9/20, 9/27, 10/4, 10/11, 10/18, 10/25, 11/1, 11/8

Class Description: This class is a great reason to get out of the house and have fun with fellow moms. This is a beginner /Intermediate ballet class. Most importantly this class is built for students to learn or relearn ballet technique in a fun environment. Classes will include barre and center work, but will incorporate more of a modern style in the technique. Each class will end with a contemporary combination.

Dress Code: Clothing that you can move in. Ballet slippers are preferable, but not necessary.

Cost: $136 or $20 walk in

Teacher: Chuan Xie

Ballet 6 ~ (For 3rd & 4th grade) ~ 17 weeks

Friday 5:00-6:00

Dates: 9/20, 9/27, 10/4, 10/11, 10/18, 10/25, 11/1, 11/8, 11/15, 11/22, 12/6, 12/13, 12/20, 1/10, 1/17, 1/24, 1/31

Class Description: This class is for 3rd and 4th graders looking to take a fun ballet class. Classes will include barre-work, extend our vocabulary and positions, and will continue building on simple combinations of steps in the center. This class will focus on correct alignment, port de bras, turn-out, and footwork, while in a warm and fun environment. Dancers will still get to explore creative movement, and learn more about the great ballets and their choreography. Each week dancers will also work towards a dance that they will perform in a recital in June.

Dress Code: Girls should come to class in pink tights and a leotard. All girls should have ballet slippers. Hair should be up in a bun or up off their faces. Skirts are permitted. Boys should wear black boys ballet tights and white ballet shirt.

Cost: $408

Teacher: Chuan Xie