2022 BUYER FLYER

The new season is fast approaching and so are the deadlines for your orders. The fears that surrounded last season of product shortages and costs are still top of mind. That being said, Al-Par Peat's inventory has never been better and availability on products for the next season are very positive. We have also partnered up with manufacturers to offer a new variety of hanging baskets and decorative planters with competitive pricing. All supplies very are still monitored closely and we are adjusting orders or finding alternative options to limit the chance of any shortage. The success of the new warehouse has created a new level of confidence on orders placed. If an order update is needed, please call, text, or email your salesman. Please get your orders placed and contact us with any concerns you may have for this upcoming season!!
