

Friday Evening Candle or Candles In The Home
[In accordance with Rabbi Moshe Weiner, AskNoah.org]

On Friday after sundown, one or more members of The home may light one or more candles on the dinner table, to beautify the family's evening meal.
This may be delegated to the Women and girls of the home. The following prayers may be said after lighting
The candles.

(Wamart has Shabbat Candles)

May it be Your will, L-rd our G-d, that the light
Of Your commandments will enlighten the whole World, that all who come into the world will unite
With their part in Your Torah, and that Your Temple
Be rebuilt soon in our time, so that we may serve
You there reverently.

May it be Your will, L-rd our G-d, Creator of The Universe and G-d of all humanity, that You Show favor to all Your servants, and in particular to Me and my family, and that You grant us long life in Service to You, that You remember us with Beneficent remembrance and blessing, that You Consider us with a consideration of salvation and Compassion, that You bless us with great blessing,
That You make our household complete, and that You cause Your Presence to enlighten us.

May it be Your will, L-rd our G-d, to privilege
Us to raise children and grandchildren who are wise
And understanding, who love and fear You, that they May grow up to be people of truth who are attached
To You, that they may illuminate the world with Good and righteous deeds, and that their labors be In service of You, G-d, creator of the universe.

Please hear our supplications at this time, and let Your kind attention shine upon us.

[As Noahides we do not observe Shabbat, But we Can light a candle and have a Friday evening family Dinner, In remembrance or tribute to the Jewish Shabbat Day]
