THE HISTORY OF INCENSE

artisanal quality

From sourcing the finest natural ingredients to painstaking line production and attentive final finishing, our 540-strong team of craftsmen are constantly checking for quality and purity. With the firm belief that a motivated and happy workforce leads to better quality and products, Sarathi insists on ethical production in every way possible:

- Clean, safe hygienic environments for all staff
- Absolute compliance with all local manpower regulations
- Superior compensation and benefit packages for employees
- Financial aid for educating employees' children
- Absolutely no child labour

purity, that's eco friendly

Along with choosing only the highest quality of natural materials for our products, we also enhance their environment-friendliness with the following:

- Green operations
- Vegan-certified factories
- Our operations are clean and green
- Reduced wastage at every production stage
- Scientific recycling of waste material
- No usage of chemicals hazardous to humans, animals, or the environment
- No generation of industrial effluents

purity,
that's socially responsible

For decades, we have been recognised as India's most socially conscious incense manufacturer.

The Sarathi Charitable Trust was founded in 1980 to give back to the less privileged sections of society.

OUR EXQUISITE RANGE OF

INCENSE PRODUCTS

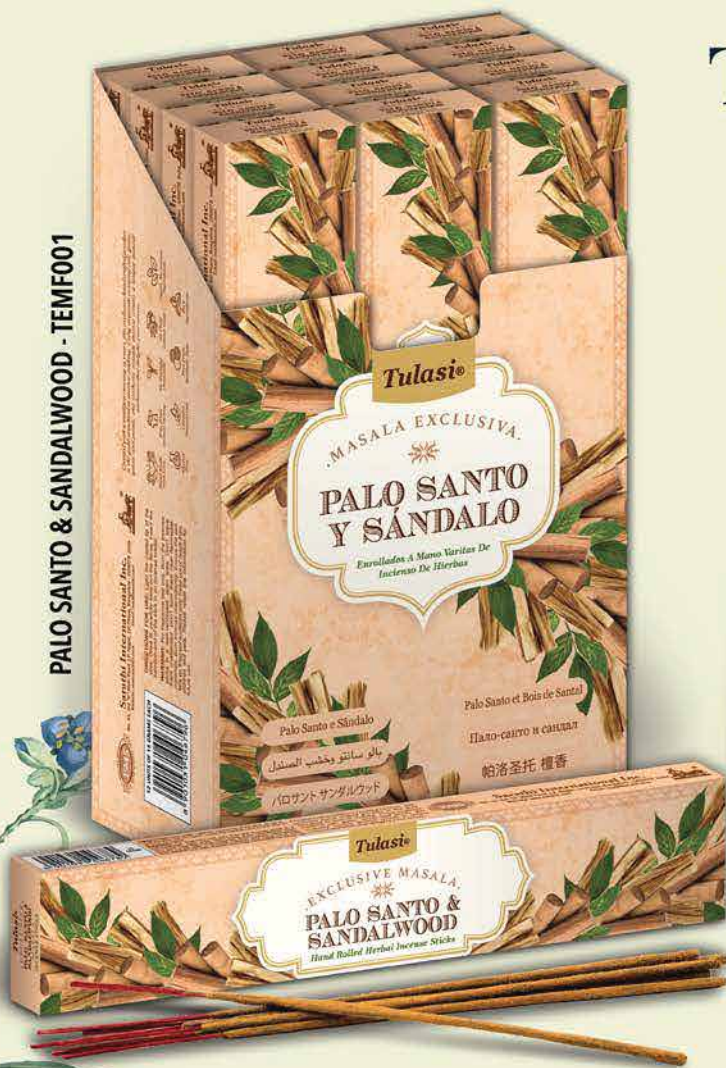

Sarathi International offers a large range of in incense sticks, cones, backflow cones, oils, garden varieties and more. We use natural ingredients extracted and pressed from trees, bushes, herbs, grasses, fruits, berries, and flowers to enhance your incense experience. Since ancient times, incense has been used as a spiritual and ritual tool to perfume surroundings, banish negative energy, and enhance the harmony of your space.
