Please include with this application an original essay, between 500 to 1,500 words on the topic:

2020 Topic

The media (printed and electronic) is how most people get their news. How does one determine they are obtaining the correct information? In your opinion do people go to different media outlets to obtain different views? Should they? What other ways can people get information on a subject/person if they are not satisfied with the present media outlets?

This essay is required and will be graded during the selection process. The top 25% essays will be selected for inclusion in the lottery in which five winners will be chosen. Submissions become the property of Blue Knights® International and will not be returned. Winning essays may be reprinted in the Blue Knights® News. Incomplete applications will be disqualified. (That means every blank must be filled in! Omit one and be disqualified!)
