These two pictures show the sign at the entrance to the church parking lot. Thanks to Ron and Sharon Johnson for pruning all the excess growth around the base of the tree! What a difference some trimming can make.

IT'S ALMOST TIME FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES TO BEGIN!

=====

How we do know it's fall? Well, here in Puyallup the Western Washington Fair is taking place. We can no longer stay outside until 9:00 pm pulling that last weed! Also, you may not have noticed, but I certainly have, the squirrels are frantically trying to bury every last nut from our neighbor's black walnut tree in any of the neighboring yards! They're really quite indiscriminate!

My last and by far my favorite sign, is the starting of Sunday School. This year September 20th is the first day for class. Our lessons are ready and we are all looking forward to teaching God's Word again. If you'd like a preview of the lessons we'll teach this fall, check out the bulletin board outside the Sunday School rooms that Valerie Claiborne put together.

Mark the date! SEPTEMBER 20th!

Blessings, Mary Loshbough
