Following the service, the flowers will be placed at the memorial statue in Pioneer Park. If paying by check, make it payable to Living Word Lutheran Church (LWLC) and mark it in the category "Memorial", place it in the pink or blue envelope, and drop it in the offering plate.

--That Living Word has a wonderful and faithful custodian by the name of Holli Reichl? She is at the church building once a week and cleans the restrooms, vacuums, sweeps, dusts, empties wastebaskets, shampoos carpets when necessary, and more. Thank you Holli!

--That our five confirmands will be assisting with the worship service at Julian Estates on Sunday, May 26? These youth have been "blessed to be a blessing" to our congregation and will be to the residents at Julian Estates as well.

--That you can submit an article, information on a programming event, or a story to the Lifeline just by completing a form located on the "Sign Up" table in the narthex?

WHAT'S NEW?

BANNERS! The Decor Committee have installed new banners, one in the chancel area of the church as well as one in the Narthex. The chancel banner will change with the church seasons. This provides a beautiful enhancement to our church.

PASTOR HAS A NEW OFFICE! In order to make more space for the Sunday School program which begins in September, Pastor suggested his office be moved to the Quiet Room located next to his office. This has been accomplished, so look for him now at the end of the hall in the office area. The Quiet Room furniture will remain and the room will continue to be available when needed.

A "THURSDAY THOUGHT FROM PASTOR ERIC"! Pastor recently began a "Thursday Thought" on www.youtube.com. The "Thought" for this week is: "Prayers for Israel". He requests that he be joined in prayerful consideration for Israel.

ALMOST NEW is the table in the Narthex where you can sign up for events or learn of new information. Please check it out! We don't want you to miss out on an event that might be of interest to you!

THANK YOU!

Thank you from the women of Living Word for the gift of a box of chocolates from Men's Ministry given on Mother's Day. It was very thoughtful and appreciated!
