The toilet paper drive was VERY successful! We received 503 rolls of toilet tissue during the June toilet tissue drive to benefit the Adult and Teen Challenge program located in Graham. The drive was sponsored by the Women's Ministry and they want to thank everyone who generously donated toilet tissue.

The Adult and Teen Challenge program is a residential, long term recovery and discipleship program for women suffering from drug and alcohol addiction. They take part in vocational training, counseling and therapy, life skills training, education and job training and spiritual growth and discipleship.

A representative from the program picked up the toilet tissue on Tuesday, July 2nd and was thrilled and very thankful for the toilet tissue. The program relies on the generosity of churches, groups and individuals to assist with various items.
