

South Gilliam Health Center

Notice Informing Individuals About Nondiscrimination and Accessibility Requirements and Nondiscrimination Statement

Discrimination is against the law.

South Gilliam Health Center complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate based on race, color, national origin, age disability, or sex (including sex characteristics, intersex traits, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, gender identity, and sex stereotypes).

South Gilliam Health Center will not discriminate in the provision of health care services to an individual because the individual is unable to pay for health care services or because payment for those services would be made under Medicare, Medicaid, or the other Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

South Gilliam Health Center:

- Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:
  - Qualified sign language interpreters

- Written information in other forms (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:
  - Qualified interpreters
  - Information written in other languages

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, please contact Lisa Helms or someone at the front desk.

If you believe that South Gilliam Health Center has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color national origin, age disability, or sex, you can file a civil rights complaint with the US Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights, electronically through the Office for Civil Rights Complaint Portal, available at:
