The IJLA Board has worked hard to secure sponsorships and funding to cover the costs for the weekend (meals, awards, t-shirts, judge, fairgrounds, supplies and premiums) and make Field Day a family-friendly weekend. Thank you to the generous sponsors for their support!

Rules

All exhibitors must be paid members of the IJLA. Annual fee is $10 and can be paid with entry, unless already paid.

Entry fee will be $15 per head. Entries must be postmarked or emailed by May 1. Late entry fee after May 1 will be $20 per head.

Purebred: Must be 75% Limousin or greater and registered with an orange NALF registration certificate. Females will be shown by age (youngest to oldest) and must be born after September 1, 2023 and before January 31, 2025. Cows must be born on or before August 31, 2023. Their calves will be shown as pairs only and must be born after November 1, 2024. Calves must be sired by a registered Limousin, Lim-Flex, or Angus bull. The cow/calf division will be included in the Breeding Female shows.

Lim-Flex: Must be registered with a purple NALF registration certificate and follow the same age and ownership requirements as the purebred division.

Market Steers & Heifers: Must be registered with NALF and born in 2024. Will show for Champion Market Animal.

Bred & Owned: To show Bred & Owned, the animal must have the Jr.'s herd prefix and the dam must have been in the Jr.'s name at the time the cow was bred to produce the calf. All bulls must be born between January 1, 2024 and January 31, 2025.

Best Pair of Females by One Exhibitor: Any combination of Purebred and Lim-Flex females.

Best 3 Head by One Family: Immediate Family (Brothers and Sisters)

You do not need to send registration papers with your entry form. Paper Registration Certificates required at check-in.

Substitute showman must be a current IJLA member or a sibling of the exhibitor that meets the junior age requirement.

This is a "No Fit Show" — No adhesives allowed.
