

On April 29, 2017, Director of Architecture Services, Frank Cunha (above) presented a workshop on “Higher Standards for Higher Education” at the AIA Conference on Architecture in Orlando, Florida. Working in conjunction with Montclair State colleague Robert Taylor, Ph.D and Jason Kliwinski of the Green Building Center of NJ, presentation objectives included planning and implementation of more efficient facility renovations, sustainability integration into the construction process, creating linkages between the physical environment and educational programs, and implementing measures to increase safety, resiliency and sustainability. Mr. Cunha proudly represented Montclair State and University Facilities throughout his travels during the three-day conference.

Senior Building Maintenance Workers Yazmin Roman Gonzalez (left) and Justo Molero (right) receive “Appreciation for All You Do” awards from Dr. Karen L. Pennington, Vice President for Student Development and Campus Life. (SDCL) at the annual SDCL Red Ribbon Awards ceremony on September 15, 2017.

Congratulations to Assistant Director of Postal Services, Lavone Broxton, for receiving Certifications in Professional Development Management and Incoming Mail & Delivery Distribution Management at the October 2017 MAILCOM Annual Fall Conference in Las Vegas, NV.

Congratulations to Bruce Curtis, a Repairer in the Facilities Maintenance and Engineering department, who received a Diploma in recognition of satisfactory completion of a prescribed course in Professional Locksmithing from the Foley Belsaw Institute in October 2017.

Congratulations to Yazmin Roman Gonzalez and Justo Molero, Senior Building Maintenance Workers in the Housekeeping Services Blank Unit, who were honored by the Division of Student Development & Campus Life (SDCL) with Red Ribbon Awards in September 2017. The SDCL Red Ribbon Awards were created to recognize and reward individual staff members for outstanding performance, special accomplishments and overall contribution to the University community.

Congratulations to Stephen Ruggiero, Director of Grounds & Landscape Services. In March 2017, he received Certification upon completion of the Public Works Manager Program at Rutgers University.