

THE 5-DAY TRANSFORMATION

The background of the entire cover is a dark, cracked, and textured surface, resembling dry earth or a shattered stone. In the center, a human figure is depicted in a state of intense transformation. The figure is composed of bright, flowing lines of orange and yellow fire, with streaks of blue and white light energy radiating from the head and limbs. The figure appears to be breaking through the cracked surface, with fragments of the dark material flying away. The overall effect is one of powerful, explosive change.
