

THE 5-DAY TRANSFORMATION

The background of the entire cover is a dark, cracked, and textured surface, resembling dry earth or a shattered stone. In the center, a human figure is depicted in a state of intense transformation. The figure is composed of bright, flowing orange and yellow energy, with a blue and white aura surrounding it. From the figure's back and limbs, powerful streaks of blue and orange energy radiate outwards, creating a starburst effect. The overall composition conveys a sense of breakthrough and rebirth.
