Basketball 2014 Line Up

Afton, OK..... Coach Bobby Shinn..... Enrollment 180..... Look for the Eagles to soar above the .500 mark this season as three key regulars and a number of reserves return from last year's injury plagued team..... Return to camp after a one year absence..... Member of the Lucky 7 Conference.

Afton, MO.....Coach Kevin Warner..... Enrollment 800..... We welcome the Cougars for their first appearance in our summer camp program..... This winter is the year the Suburban East Conference member has been building for..... Return top seven players from last year's 11-15 club..... Three senior returning starters will be four year varsity players..... The seven senior squad members will give the St. Louis County school the experience to lead to a successful season.

Alex, OK..... Coach David Rosenberg..... Enrollment 105..... A trip to the Area round of the Oklahoma State Tournament last winter was a first for the Longhorns since 1999..... 95% of last year's scoring from a team that finished 13-12 was lost to graduation.....One starter does return but a team in a rebuilding mode could mean early struggles as young players adapt to varsity level play..... Member of the Grady County Conference.

Archie..... Coach Dustin Mounce..... Enrollment 160..... Coach Mounce will take over the head coaching position of the Whirl Winds for the 2014-15 season and the cupboard is far from bare..... Three starters and several key reserves return from a 23-4 club that fell in the finals of last March's district tournament.....Member of the Western Missouri Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Arcadia Valley..... Coach Adam Waddell..... Enrollment 350..... Expectations are high in the summer camp of the Tigers, as well they should be as the entire starting lineup from last year's 21-7 club returns.....Lost to Saxony Lutheran in the District title game.....Plans are for a deeper run into Class 3 post season play this March.....Member of the Mineral Area Athletic Association, finishing third last year.....One of the original 8 in our first camp 21 years ago.

Ashton-Franklin Center, IL.....We welcome the Raiders to our camp lineup..... Members of the Northwest Upstate Illini Conference..... Will bring a wealth of experience to the 2014-15 season as four starters return from last year's winning season.....Have a strong group of incoming freshman to blend with the returnees.....Good first year addition to our camp roster.

Aurora..... Coach Jim Moore..... Enrollment 593..... Armed with a resume packed with success at multiple schools in SWMO, Coach Moore will take over the Hound Dawg program for the upcoming season..... Talent is there to make an immediate impact as four starters return from a 12-9 2013-14 club and strong talent is coming up through the lower level to provide depth and guard against complacency.....Member of the Big 8 Conference.

Beardstown, IL..... Coach Josh Sorrells..... Enrollment 420..... Making their first appearance in our summer camp program, we welcome the Tigers from the West Central area of the Land of Lincoln..... Coach Sorrells will begin his second season with the Prairieland Conference member school..... Return two starters from last year's 5-21 club, who will lead the rebuilding process.

Belton..... Coach Brad Batchelder.....Enrollment 1350..... In the second season under the direction of Coach Batchelder, the Pirates showed significant progress in a five win season as the three leading scorers were all freshman..... Expect more movement in the right direction as fundamentals have been heavily stressed in the sub varsity levels..... Member of the Kansas City Suburban 7.

Bigelow, AR..... Coach Marcus Aynes..... Enrollment 200..... The Panthers will make their first appearance in our camp lineup this summer..... Will depend on a lineup of sophomores who were successful on the JH level to begin the climb to the winning side of the ledger..... Return two starters from last year's varsity.....Located in the central part of the Razorback state.

Bishop DuBourg..... Coach Mary Kaye Brandt..... Enrollment 400..... A team headed in the right direction under a determined new coach.....In Coach Brandt's first year in charge of the Cavaliers' program, steady progress was made by a young team that finished the year at 9-14..... Four starters return and several talented incoming freshman will push for varsity playing time..... Member of the very competitive Archdiocesan Athletic Association.

Blair Oaks Coach Leroy Bernskoetter..... Enrollment 415..... One of the states' more consistently strong small school programs over the last decade, expect the Falcons to put out another strong contingent this winter..... Return three starters from last year's 20-8 club..... Lost to Boonville in the district finals..... Undefeated Tri-County Conference champions..... Must replace all-state leading scorer lost to graduation.....Long time camp entry.

Blue Eye..... Coach Ken Elfrink..... Enrollment 230..... A key early season ending injury derailed momentarily the 2013-14 edition of the Bulldogs, losing the team's only senior..... The underclassman regrouped and finished with a solid 16-10 record.....With the entire roster returning in tack, hopes are high for a successful campaign this winter..... Member of the Southwest Central League.....Long time camp entry.

Blue Springs South..... Coach Brad Oyler..... Enrollment 2000..... The KC Suburban school has hopes for the upcoming season of advancing ahead one slot across the board..... Finished second last winter in the district tournament, Big Suburban Conference and two invitational..... With three regulars back from last year, and some highly thought of sophomores and freshman moving up, improving on last year's 20-8 mark is a lofty but doable goal.

Blue Valley Northwest, KS..... Coach Bubalo..... Enrollment 1600..... This will be the second summer for the Huskies to attend our camp..... Last year's young team developed throughout the 8-13 campaign, and with 11 returnees, the East Kansas League member expects to show marked improvement this winter.

Bolivar.....Coach Darin Archer..... Enrollment 750..... A long time power on the state level, the Lady Liberators are set this upcoming winter for another deep playoff run..... All five starters and four key reserves return from last year's 18-8 team..... Play in the very competitive Central Ozark Conference and don't shy away from strong non-league competition, half of last year's setbacks came against eventual final four teams..... Second year in camp.

Boonville..... Coach Jaryt Hunziker..... Enrollment 480..... Last season in Coach Hunziker's second year with the Pirates, he took a 7 win team to a District title and a 25-4 record, an incredible win improvement total of 18..... Four starters and several key reserves return for an encore run.....Hope to play deep into the Class 3 State Tournament next March..... Member of the North Central Conference.

Borgia..... Coach Stacia Parsell..... Enrollment 540..... A magic year came to a disappointing ending for the Lady Knights as they lost a heartbreaker to Marshfield in the Sectional round of the Class 4 State Tournament, capping an outstanding 25-3 season.....Undefeated Archdiocesan Athletic Association champions..... Return three regulars, but must replace several key cogs lost to graduation, including as first team all-stater.....Long time camp entry.

Bourbon..... Coach Terra Heidle..... Enrollment 250..... This should be the season that the Warhawks break to the plus side of the .500 plateau..... Last year's 8 wins was a recent high water mark for the Gasconade Valley Conference member and was achieved despite some debilitating injuries to key performers..... Three starters return.....Long time camp entry.

Bowling Green..... Coach Bryan Keim..... Enrollment 380..... The 2014-15 edition of the Bobcats is projected as a talented and deep group..... A lot of firepower is back in the three returning starters from last year's 17-10 club..... Hope to make serious runs this upcoming winter at both Eastern Missouri Conference and District titles.....Long time camp participant.

Brownstown-St.Elmo..... Coach Brian Pruett..... Enrollment 200..... Former rivals, the two school's coop has proven successful for the Bombers, as last year's 16-9 record indicates..... Blending of the talent for the NTC member school has created good depth, as several starters from last year will need to be replaced, but worthy candidates are ready and will benefit from the experience of two returning starters.....Second year in camp.

Brookfield..... Coach Mike Lincoln..... Enrollment 300.....The Lady Dogs capped a great 2013-14 season with a 4 point loss in the district finals to Palmyra..... Two starters return from the 24-4 team..... Have talented younger players ready to step into varsity roles and expect another stellar season this fall.....Member of the Clarence Cannon Conference.

Brussels, IL..... Coach Steve Schulte..... Enrollment 45..... The Raiders have been building for several years for the 2014-15 season..... Last year's solid 16-12 season was accomplished with an almost entire roster of underclassman and four starters will return this winter.....Lake of depth is always a concern in a school with a total enrollment of 21 girls and injuries must be avoided if the Lady Raiders are to be successful.....Member of the Pike County Conference.

Butler..... Coach Shannon Gepford..... Enrollment 260..... A program to keep an eye on the next couple of years.....With a lineup heavy with freshman starters last winter, the Bears finished the year with a winning record of 13-11..... Members of the Crossroads Conference.....Return four starters and will welcome a well thought of freshman class to the high school game..... Second year in camp.

Cabool..... Coach Rance Beller..... Enrollment 211..... An experienced Bulldog team will take the floor this winter as four regulars return from last year's 5-18 team..... Hope to make significant progress towards a .500 season.....Member of the South Central Association.....Long time camp entry.

Caledonia (Valley).....Coach Kari Sadler..... Enrollment 120..... A team that has shown improvement in a steady climb up the winning ladder, last season's five win total was a big step in the right direction..... 2014-15 will be the third year for core group as this year's squad will be mainly sophomores and juniors and will return all five starters.....Member of the Mineral Area Athletic Association..... Third year in camp.

Calhoun, IL..... Coach Aaron Baalman..... Enrollment 185..... Expect big things from the Warriors this winter as a starting lineup the touts three six footers returns in tact from a squad that finished the year at 25-4..... Defending champions of the Western Illinois Valley Conference..... Were state ranked most of last season and hope to make a deep run into the March, 2015 Illinois state playoffs..... First year back in camp after a several year absence.

Calvary Lutheran..... Coach Jonathan Kueck..... Enrollment 96..... The Jefferson City based school is a relatively new program headed in the right direction..... The Lions finished the 2013-14 season with an improved mark of 10-12..... Three regulars return and the talent base in the lower levels is encouraging..... Look to top the .500 mark for the first time this winter..... Second year in camp.

Camdenton..... Coach Staci Caffey..... Enrollment 1500..... The Lakers are a team with high hopes for success on the state level over the next several seasons..... Anchored by a strong sophomore class, tied for the Ozark Conference title last winter, finishing with a 14-10 record.....Did graduate two key senior starters..... Had a bad draw for the District Tournament , landing with Columbia Rock Bridge and Columbia Hickman.....2014-15 district assignment on paper appears less daunting.

Canton..... Coach Lindsay Uhlmeier..... Enrollment 160..... It will be both a young and experience contingent the Tiger's will put on the floor this winter..... All five regulars return from last year's 11-13 club..... A talented group of incoming freshman will provide the depth needed to play the up-tempo style planned for the 2014-15 season..... Play an independent regular schedule.

Cape Central..... Coach Sherri Shirrell..... Enrolment 1100..... A young team last winter endured the growing pains of inexperience and endured to a final record of 5-21..... Will return three starters, but will consist of a young roster as have only one returning senior starter, but expect to make serious progress towards the .500 mark..... Member of the SEMO Conference.

Carrollton, IL..... Coach Brian Madson..... Enrollment 110..... An excellent new addition to our camp lineup, the Lady Hawks return for the upcoming season their entire starting lineup from last season's club that finished as runner-up in the Illinois Class 1 state tournament..... Last year's record was 25-7.....With such a solid resume, the goal for 2014-15 is an obvious one.... The Western Illinois Valley Conference member can go nine deep.

Centralia..... Coach Mike Haun..... Enrollment 450..... Look for another strong season from the Lady Panthers this winter as three starters and three key reserves return from last year's 15-10 club..... Good talent moving up from the lower ranks as incoming freshman and sophomores will provide needed depth on the varsity level.....Member of the Clarence Cannon Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Chaffee.....Coach Misty Wilhite..... Enrollment 190..... First year in camp for for the Devils from the bootheel area of Southeast Missouri..... Hope to improve on olast year's 8-12 record and have two starters returning to lead the way.....Member of the Scott-Miss Conference.

Civic Memorial, IL..... Coach Jonathan Denney..... Enrollment 760..... 2014 was a high water mark for the Eagles as they became the first team in school history to advance to the State Tournament Super Sectional round..... Return only one starter from last year's 31-3 club, but younger players moving up are talented and hungry, just untested on the varsity level.....Member of the Mississippi Valley Conference's..... Second year in camp.

Clark County..... Coach John Weaver..... Enrollment 325..... The injury bug hit the Indians hard last winter as two post players were lost to ACL injuries.....Both hope to return at full strength this fall to blend with two other returnees from last year's 9-14 club..... Much of this winter's success will depend on untried on the varsity level players increasing their skill levels.....Member of the Clarence Cannon Conference.

Clinton, MO.....Coach Josh Dorr..... Flying to un-before seen heights, the Cardinals topped a 19-11 season last March by winning the first district championship in school history.....Knocked off Pleasant Hill in the District final before falling to Notre Dame de Sion in the Sectional round of the Class 4 state tournament..... Return two starters but must replace three leading scorers from 2014 lost to graduation.....Member of the West Central Conference.

Clinton, OK..... Coach Chad Walker.....Enrollment 475..... We welcome the Lady Red Tornados to our camp lineup..... Hailing from the far Western part of the Sooner State, after the graduation of six seniors from last season's 10-16 club; it will be a young but determined group that takes the floor this winter..... Working hard this off season with sights set on a plus .500 finish for the 2014-15 season..... A good addition to our camp lineup.

Clopton.....Coach Larry Lagemann..... Enrollment 160..... A long time traditional small school power, expect nothing less than continued success from the Hawks this upcoming season..... Three regulars and several key reserves return from last year's 22-7 team..... Eastern Missouri Conference and District defending champions.....Fell to Knox County in Sectional play.....Long time camp entry whose sights are set on a deep run into next March's Class 2 State play.

Columbus, KSCoach Marty Atrip..... Enrollment 314..... Veteran Coach Atrip has the Titans poised for a breakthrough season.....Four starters return from last winter's successful 17-5 club..... Were champions of both the St. Paul and Southeast Tournaments..... Finished second in both the CNC Conference race and the Sub State tournament to eventual state runner-up Frontenac..... Look this season to make a deep run into March post season play.

Conway Christian, AR Coach Jeremy Carson..... Enrollment 110..... The Lady Eagles will make their first appearance in our camp this summer..... Will bring four returning starters from last year's 14-10 team.....Have hopes of marked improvement this winter and a deep run into the Class 2 Arkansas state playoffs.....Good first year addition to our lineup.

Crocker..... Coach Nancy Ward..... Enrollment 230.....Last season was expected to be a transition year for the Frisco League power, but the Lady Lions roared to a 15-10 record, despite a youthful starting lineup that included 3 sophomores and 2 freshman.....Look to challenge for conference, district and beyond honors this winter.....Long time camp entry.

Crossett, AR..... Coach Russell Woodard..... Enrollment 420..... We welcome back the Eagles for their second summer in our camp program.....An experienced group will take the court this winter as four regulars return from last year's 14 win club..... Depth should be a strength and guard against complacency of the returnees, as a solid group is moving up from the Junior High level.

Crystal City..... Coach Ken Jones..... Enrollment 175..... 2014 was a bounce back year for the Hornets as veteran Coach Jones got his team back on the plus side of .500, finishing the season with a mark of 14-11..... The Jefferson County Conference member hopes to return to their levels of previous years as both district and conference contenders Two starters will lead the charge this winter but need underclassman to mature to varsity players quickly.....Long time camp entry.

Cuba..... Coach Nate Boeh..... Enrollment 400..... A revised Wildcat program in 2014 captured the Gasconade Valley Conference crown on its way to a final season mark of 13-13..... Expect more success this upcoming season as four starters will return.....Younger players moving up to the varsity level will be expected to provide needed depth.....Long time camp entry.

Delta..... Coach Gary Poyner..... Enrollment 90..... Coach Poyner will begin his second year at the helm of the Bobcats..... Will welcome this summer a talented group of freshman to the varsity ranks Two returning starters from last year's 6-18 club will lead a young team that feels it has the tools to battle over the .500 mark this winter.....Member of the Scott-Mississippi Conference.

Edwards County, IL..... Coach Tanya Reed..... Enrollment 300..... A new addition to our camp lineup, we welcome the Lions from Mid-Central Illinois..... Looking to build a solid program, a young team last year endured to a 5-17 record..... Expect this winter to make strides towards the plus side of the .500 plateau as three regulars return.....Member of the Little Illini Conference.

Elk City, OK..... Coach Tim Ellison..... Enrollment 450..... The Elks will make this summer their first appearance in our summer lineup..... Will be heavily dependent this upcoming season on the development of players stepping up from the sub-varsity levels..... Will build around two returning regulars from last winter's 15-12 club..... Members of the Western Conference.

Everton..... Coach Jennifer Miller..... Enrollment 53..... When the injury bug hits a small enrollment school, like it did last season to the Tigers, it magnified the lack of depth and forced an undermanned team to endure a 5-20 year..... The good news is that the injured are back and ready to join four returning starters and some promising freshman.....Member of the Mark Twain Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Eugene..... Coach Mike Phillips..... Enrollment 241..... Coach Phillips will begin his first season with the Eagles..... Three regulars return from a 2013-14 squad that completed the season with a record of 4-20.....Members of the Show Me Conference..... Return to our camp lineup after an absence of several year.....One of the "original 8" in our first camp 21 years ago.

Farmington..... Coach Steve McFarland..... Enrollment 850..... A very young Knights team last season endured a rarity at this Mineral Area Athletic Association member; a losing season..... Expect the ship to be righted this winter and this long time camp entry back to their usual winning ways..... Only graduated one senior from last year's team.....Long time camp entry.

Fatima..... Dustin Hays.....Enrollment 400..... Transitioning to the much more competitive Gateway Athletic Conference, the Eagles have paid their dues and last year's team climbed above the .500 mark by finishing 13-12.....Look for the improvement to continue this winter as two starters and three key reserves return to blend with some athletic underclassman moving up to the varsity.

Osage..... Coach Scott Rowland..... Enrollment 550..... Looking to ride the momentum from last season's improved record, hopes are high in the Indian's summer camp.....Return three regulars from last winter's 17-9 club..... Big improvement from the previous year's 9 win season..... Member of the Tri-County Conference..... Lost to Fatima last March in a loaded district tournament..... Good talent and numbers coming up through the lower grades.....Long time camp entry.

Osceola..... Coach Kim Wohlers..... Enrollment 188..... The Lady Indians are determined to build on last year's injury plagued 14-10 campaign..... Inexperienced showed last winter as the WEMO Conference member was in almost every game but could not consistently surge in the 4th quarter to grab wins..... Expect to use lessons learned last year to challenge for district and conference honors this season.

Ozark..... Coach David Brewer..... Enrollment 1700..... Coach Brewer's first season at the helm of the Lady Tigers proved to be a successful one, compiling an 18-9 record and a second place district finish..... Four starters were lost to graduation but several top reserves return and younger players moving up through the sub-varsity levels are both talented and plentiful.....Member of the Central Ozarks Conference.

Park Hills Central..... Coach Josh Mapes..... Enrollment 515..... The best news for fans of the Lady Rebels is not that last year's team finished the year with a mark of 26-2, but that all five starters will return this winter for an encore..... Both losses came to eventual Class 4 runner-up Dexter, the second in the sectional round of state play..... Member of the Mineral Area Athletic Association..... Defending undefeated conference champs.....Long time camp entry.

Pella, IA..... Coach Jerod Garland..... Enrollment 700..... We welcome the Lady Dutch to our camp lineup..... A solid program looking to have a big year in 2014-15 as four starters return from last year's 16-7 club..... Started the year 4-4 before catching fire after the Christmas break..... Hope to pick up this fall where last season ended with intentions of making a serious run at the State Tournament.

Piasa, IL..... Coach Steve Wooley..... Enrollment 520..... The Birds are perched to soar to great heights over the next few seasons..... A team dominated by sophomores last season roared to a final mark of 26-3..... Fell last March in a heart breaker in the Sectional round of the Class 2A state tournament, losing by one point on a buzzer beater to Riverton..... All five starters return for an encoreMember of the South Central Conference..... Third year in camp.

Pinckneyville, IL..... Coach Alan Engelhardt..... Enrollment 410..... The Southern Illinois School always puts a competitive team on the court and this winter should be no exception..... Return six of eight player rotation from last year's 18-13 club, but must find offense to replace three year leading scorer lost to graduation..... Member of the River to River-Mississippi Conference.....Long time camp participant.

Plattsburg..... Coach Hunter Adkins..... Enrollment 240..... We welcome the Tigers to our camp lineup..... A program headed in the right direction, three regulars return from last year's 9-16 team that started slow from the blocks but finished the season playing its best ball.....Member of the KCI Conference..... Raw, but potentially outstanding young talent will back up returnees.

Potosi..... Coach Matt Bradley..... Enrollment 685..... With a solid base built upon three returning starters from last year's 15-12 club, the Trojans are optimistic entering the 2014-15 season.....Members of the Mineral Area Athletic Association.....Good young talent in the lower levels.....Long time camp entry.

Putnam County..... Coach Craig DeVore..... Enrollment 190..... Injuries decimated a young team last season.....However, the misfortune allowed for a lot of younger players to see varsity court time for the Midgets as three freshman moved into the starting lineup..... Finished the year with a mark of 10-15..... Expect to push above the .500 mark this upcoming season.....Member of the Tri-Rivers Conference..... Still young, but this long time camp participant is team to watch over the next couple of seasons.

Quitman, AR..... Coach Tim Hooten..... Enrollment 200..... Coach Hooten will relocate from Idaho this summer to take over the Bulldogs program..... An intriguing group, the anticipated roster for this season will consist of entirely freshman and sophomores..... Two who did start on last year's 11-9 varsity as freshman, will return to give experience and leadership to the young but talented group.

Richland.....Coach Charlie Parker..... Enrollment 180..... With four starters returning from last season's 5-21 club, and with the arrival of a highly regarded and successful class of incoming freshman, depth should be a Bears' strength in 2014-15.....May be a year away, but the future looks promising for this long time camp entry..... Members of the Frisco League Conference.

Richmond..... Coach Dave Littrell..... Enrollment 420..... A program that has made great strides the last five years, the Spartans are poised for a break out year as three starters from last year's 18-10 team return..... Add in a strong group of underclassman new to the varsity level, and avenging last season's one point loss in the district finals is a very doable goal for this Missouri River Valley Conference member..... A long time camp entry.

Ripley, OK..... Coach Doug Scott..... Enrollment 148..... A small school that never seems to be down, the Warriors need to replace several key cogs lost from last year's 22-8 team..... Expect the Cimarron 7 Conference member to fill the gaps with younger players ready to maintain the program's rich tradition..... Lost in the Area round of last year's Sooner State playoffs.Long time camp entry.

Ritenour..... Coach Ron Steinschriber..... Enrollment 1700..... The North County St. Louis school is a program that has shown noticeable strides in the last couple of years..... Expect this winter to be a transition year as several big holes from last year's 16-9 team were left by graduation..... Do have two regulars returning, along with several key reserves ready to move into varsity starting roles.

Roland, OK..... Coach Scott Lowe..... Enrollment 320..... We welcome the Lady Rangers to their first appearance in our camp lineup..... Will return some experience as three starter return from last year's 8-15 club..... Goal is to challenge the .500 mark this winter.....Member of the North Oklahoma Athletic Association.

Rolla..... Coach Luke Floyd..... Enrollment 1100..... Coach Floyd will take over the Bulldog program this summer..... Recently spent the past five years as the girls coach at Sturgeon..... Will inherit a program that needs some rebuilding, a task made more daunting by membership in the ultra-strong Ozark Conference..... Lots of interest in the lower grades and some promising talent moving into the varsity ranks, but patience is the operative term of the moment.

Rosati-Kain..... Coach Maria Oliver..... Enrollment 362..... In her first year as head coach of the Kougars, Coach Oliver took over a young and rebuilding program..... Finished 6-18 playing in the ultra-strong St. Louis area Archdiocesan Athletic Association..... Eight opponents on last year's schedule were state wide top ten ranked..... Return three starters.....Long time camp entry.

Russellville..... Coach David Volkart..... Enrollment 220..... A key for the success level for next year's Indians' squad will be developing the upcoming younger players to compete on the varsity level..... Three returning starters will be solid, but depth is a concern that must be addressed if last year's final mark of 14-14 is to be improved upon.....Member of the Show Me Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Santa Fe..... Coach Jerry Hobbs..... Enrollment 120..... A team poised for a breakout year in 2015, four starters return from a Chief's club that finished last year with a mark of 17-10..... Last year's win total was a seven year high for the I-70 Conference school..... Reached the school's first district title game in seven years.....Look to fight for top honors this winter in both conference and district play.

Salem..... Coach Jake Reardon..... Enrollment 600..... Look for the Lady Tigers to continue to improve as Coach Reardon rebuilds the program.....Last year's 10-15 record was movement in the right direction for the South Central Association member..... Three regulars will return with the winter's goal to crawl above the .500 mark.....Long time camp entry.

Salisbury..... Coach Dane Brooks..... Enrollment 140..... After moving up from the assistant's chair, Coach Brooks first year as head coach of the Panthers program was a successful one..... This season's young team will depend heavily upon a talented and deep sophomore class..... Finished last year at 14-10 and return three starters..... Member of the Lewis and Clark Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Sarcoxie..... Coach April Ellis..... Enrollment 290..... The Bears will have their sights set this upcoming season on breaking through to the plus side of the won/loss ledger..... The SWMO School returns four regulars from a team that finished last year with an 11-11 record.....Hope to ride this experience in 2014-15 to the top of the SRV Conference.

St. James..... Coach Terry Wells..... Enrollment 500..... The juggernaut known as the St. James Lady Tigers just continues to roll out one outstanding season after another..... Spent most of the 2013-14 season as the top ranked Class 3 team in the state.....Ambushed by a solid Fatima team in the District finals to finish the year at 24-3..... Always a class program, expect last year's setback to fuel a determined run this upcoming March back to Columbia and the State Final Four.....Members of one of the state's top conference, the Four Rivers.....Long time camp entry.

St. Louis Metro..... Coach Gary Glasscock..... Enrollment 280..... Veteran Coach Glasscock steps back in to the head coaching slot for the Panthers after a one year sabbatical..... Three regulars return from a team that finished last season with a 20-8 mark and a state Class 3 5th ranking.....Took second place in the Public High League behind Miller Career Academy.....Welcome an incoming freshman class that has several well decorated members.....Long time camp entry.

St. Paul Lutheran..... Coach Andy Sherrill..... Enrollment 35..... A school in only its second year of existence, the Giants from Farmington, MO will jump into full time competition this upcoming school year as the join MSHSAA.....Playing a limited varsity schedule in 2013-14, valuable experience was gained in a 2-14 season..... Second year in our camp lineup.....Look for an older and improved team this upcoming season.

St. Mary's Colgan, KS..... Coach Abby Farabi..... Enrollment 148.....A program that has made noticeable strides the last three seasons, the Panthers are setting dead aim for continued success this upcoming season.....Return three starters from a 14-10 club who won a sub-state title last March and then battled eventual state champion Claflin to the wire in the Quarterfinal round of state play.....Size is a concern, but the CNC conference member has the experience to make another serious run into the Kansas Class 2A state playoffs..... Third year in camp.

St. Pius X (KC)..... Coach Bob Fenzil..... Enrollment 375..... Will be the second year in our camp for the Warriors of the KC area West Central Conference..... Return five starters and several key reserves from last year's young and improving team.....Finished 13-12, losing by two in the District Tournament to Hogan Prep..... The next few years are lining up as promising for serious runs at District honors and beyond.

St. Pius (Festus)..... Coach Aaron Portell..... Enrollment 310..... A program that has been built into a consistent winner over the past five seasons, look for the Lancers to place another strong contingent on the court this winter..... Four starters return from a team that fought injuries all last season, yet still finished with an 18-8 record..... Hope to seriously challenge for 2014-15 top honors in the Jefferson County Conference and District play.....Long time camp entry.

Ste. Genevieve..... Coach Josh Banks..... Enrollment 617.....2013-14 was an injury plagued year for the Lady Hunters..... A consistently shifting lineup forced the Mineral Area Athletic Association member's younger players to learn the varsity ropes under fire..... Depth for the upcoming year should be a strength as three regulars return from a 12-15 club..... Experience gained in close contests last winter- six losses of five points or less- should be a driving force as this long time camp entry looks to break through to the plus side of .500.

Schuyler CO..... Coach Thomas Kirkland..... Enrollment 230..... Despite the graduation of the leading scorer from last year's successful 17-9 team, the Rams expect more success this upcoming winner as three regulars return..... Will be very dependent upon a strong and deep sophomore class.....Member of the Tri-Rivers Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Seckman..... Coach Brian Metteer..... Enrollment 1750..... Coach Metteer will move from the Jaguars' assistant position he occupied last season to the head coaching slot this summer..... The new staff promises no short cuts in building a solid program at the St. Louis Suburban Conference member, but three starters from last year's 8-20 club do return to help with the transition.....Long time camp entry.

Sheridan, AR..... Coach Brian Davenport..... Enrollment 1100..... We welcome back the Lady Yellow Jackets to our camp lineup after a one year hiatus..... To better last year's 9 win total, will need some talented young players moving up from the sub-varsity levels to develop quickly and blend with three returning regulars Members of the Arkansas Class 6A South Conference.

Silex..... Coach Ryan Flanagan..... Enrollment 116..... Returning to our camp lineup after a hiatus of several years, the Owls went through a rebuilding year last winter..... Untimely season ending injuries derailed a young team..... Endured to a final record of 11-15..... Both injuries have healed and gives the Eastern Missouri Conference member a total of five returning starters..... 2014-15 will be Coach Flanagan's second year at the helm.

Steelville.....Coach Seth Collins..... Enrollment 265..... The Cardinals were an improved team last winter, indicative of their 12-11 record.....Hope to keep the winning momentum in motion this season but must replace three starters lost to graduation, including the team's leading scorer and rebounder.....Member of the Gasconade Valley Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Stockton..... Coach Kevin Burns..... Enrollment 325..... One of the state's traditional small school state powers, the Tigers are poised for another run at the Final Four this March as they return their top 6 players from last year's 17-12 team..... Tough regular season schedule always has the Mid-Lakes Conference member ready for post season play.....Lost in last year's district final to eventual state Class 3 champion, El Dorado Springs.....Long time camp entry.

Stoutland..... Coach Jackie Payne..... Enrollment 150..... In his first year of coaching on the girls side, veteran and successful Coach Payne took a young team of Tigers and endured to a final mark of 7-16..... Will return all nine players from last year's roster, including one with a 26 ppg average, leading to hopes of a winning season this winter.....Member of the Frisco League and long-time camp participant.

Sullivan..... Coach Jason Merkel..... Enrollment 730..... A long time small school power in East Central Missouri, the Eagles will spend the early part of next season in the rebuilding mode, but expect to be a serious challenge for anyone by the post season.....Lost three starters to graduation, who were responsible for $\frac{3}{4}$ of a 22-5 team's offense.....Younger players moving up from sub-varsity levels are very talented, but untested on the high level of the Four Rivers Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Tolton Catholic..... Coach Curt Riley..... Enrollment 170..... A program ready to break through on the state level, the Lady Blazer are poised for a big year in 2014-15..... Four starters return from last year's 15-9 club that lost in overtime to New Franklin in a loaded district tournament..... The Columbia, MO based school plays a non-conference regular season schedule..... Will welcome this summer some talented newcomers moving up from a JV team who dropped only two games last winter, both in OT to powerful Jefferson City Helias.

Tuckerman, AR.....Coach Chad Soden..... Enrollment 346..... The Bulldogs will travel from NEAR this summer to make their first appearance in out summer program..... A young team last year fought to a final mark of 17-

18, qualifying for the Regional Tournament..... Look to be improved this upcoming season as four regulars and a host of key reserves return..... Good first year addition to our camp lineup.

Triad, IL..... Coach Josh Hunt..... Enrollment 1250..... The St. Louis metro east entry will bring a veteran group to camp this summer..... Return starting lineup in tact from last winter's 10-17 team..... Featuring three sophomores and two freshman, the Knights 10 win season in 2014 was dramatic improvement over 2013 winless mark.....Member of the Mississippi River Conference..... Still may be a year away, but an up and coming program to watch.

Tuscumbia..... Coach Kyle Middleton..... Enrollment 70..... An emerging Missouri small school state power, the Lady Lions return 4 starters and three top reserves from last year's outstanding 23-5 club..... All five losses came against teams that won district titles.....Lost a 2 point heartbreaker to St. Elizabeth in last March's district championship game.....Member of the Show Me Conference..... Long time camp entry.

Union..... Coach Dusty Wieskopf..... Enrollment 700..... The unfortunate combination last season of an inexperienced team competing in one of the state's best girls basketball conference was the scenario that greeted Coach Wieskopf in his first year as head coach of the Wildcats..... Look for big steps forward this upcoming season as four starters and several key talented and up and coming underclassman return to improve on 2014's four win campaign.....Members of the Four Rivers Conference.

Valle Catholic.....Coach Lindsey Burgert..... Enrollment 251.....Coach Burgert will take over the Warriors program this summer and is excited about the possibilities for her first head coaching job..... Three regulars from last year's 9-19 team will help ease the transition.....Member of the Mineral Area Athletic Conference.....Long time camp entry.

Versailles Coach Mandi Young..... Enrollment 430..... A work in progress, the Tigers made positive strides last season, enduring to a final mark of 6-20..... Return three starters, but team will still be young and relatively inexperienced..... Hope to push closer to the .500 mark this winter.....Member of the Tri-County Conference.

Viburnum..... Coach Randy Payne..... Enrollment 121..... Going with a youth movement last season should pay dividends this season for the Bluejays..... An entire roster last winter of freshman and sophomores fought their way to a winning season, finishing 14-13..... Member of the Gasconade Valley Conference..... Hope in 2015 to compete for high district honors and beyond.....Long time camp entry.

Vienna..... Coach Mitch Hurt.....Enrollment 193..... Veteran Coach Hurt will begin his second year in the rebuilding of the Eagles' program..... Three regulars return from last year's "growth" season that produced four wins..... Younger players have promise and hopes are to this winter to push closer to the .500 mark.....Member of the Gasconade Valley Conference..... Long time camp entry; one of the "original 8" at our first camp 21 years ago.

Villa Duchesne..... Coach Abby Hearn..... Enrollment 300..... Long on potential but short on experience, Coach Hearn takes over a Saints program with good potential, but it will take time..... Only four upperclassman are expected to make up the varsity roster this winter, so sophomores and freshman will be pressed into varsity playing time..... Member of the Metro Conference..... Finished last year at 6-17.

Visitation Academy..... Coach John Sheridan..... Enrollment 400..... After spending the last five years as an assistant at national powerhouse Incarnate Word Academy, Coach Sheridan will attempt to bring the same type of success to the Vivettes program..... Cupboard is far from bare at the St. Louis school as four starters return from last year's 12-15 club.....Play in one of the Midwest's toughest conferences, the MWAA.

WACO, IA..... Coach Shannon Rugg..... Enrollment 97..... This will be the first time in attendance at our camps for the Warriors..... Will bring an experienced crew as four regulars return from last year's 8-13 team..... Member of the SEIS Conference.....No other info provided.

Webster, OK..... Coach James Asberry..... Enrollment 500..... Second year in camp for the Warriors..... Located in the greater Tulsa area, three regulars will return from last season's very competitive 15-11 squad..... Will welcome a talented group of freshman to the varsity ranks and expect another strong showing in 2014-15.

Wellington-Napoleon..... Coach Andy Hampton..... Enrollment 127..... Experience will be fore front in a list of team attributes for the Tigers this winter as all five starters and several key reserves return with high hopes of improving on last year's 18-8 record..... Six seniors will be on hand for the I-70 Conference member with the intent of a deep run into post season play.....Fell to Braymer in district tournament last March.....Long time camp entry.

West County..... Coach Chris Brewer..... Enrollment 275..... Steady improvement over the past season by a young club that finished 13-12,has hopes high for 2014-15 as the Lady Bulldogs return four starters..... Members of the Mineral Area Athletic Association..... Talented younger players who will blend with returnees will make depth team strength.

West Platte..... Coach Jen Lawson..... Enrollment 235.....The Lady Jays will make their first appearance in our camp program.....Look for experience gained during last year's 6-20 campaign, to push the KCI member upwards towards the .500 mark..... Feel in the second round of last March's district tournament to rival North Platte..... A good first year entry in our camp lineup.

West Side (Johnson County), AR..... Coach Steve Golden..... Enrollment 120..... Definitely a program on the way up, the Rebels have shown marked improvement over the past three seasons..... Return four regulars from a team that finished 2014 with a 19-12 record..... Have a strong incoming group of sophomores..... Three time defending conference champs.....Qualified for this past spring's Arkansas Class 2A state tournament..... Fourth year in camp.

Windsor..... Coach Brad Forrest..... Enrollment 239.....First year in camp for the Greyhounds.....Captured a district title last March with a championship game victory over rival Santa Fe..... Fell to Skyline in the Class 2 Sectional round..... Return three regulars and some talented younger players ready to earn varsity spots.....Member of the I-70 Conference.

West Burlington, IA..... Coach Jeremy Price..... Enrollment 250..... This will be the Falcons second year to participate in our camps..... Return three starters, but all will be underclassman, from last year's 5-19 club..... Member of the SEISC in the Hawkeye state.....Hope for more consistent scoring this winter.

Woodland..... Coach Robert Stein..... Enrollment 220..... The Cardinals are anticipating a rebuilding year as five talented seniors graduated from last year's 17-6 club..... Do return one starter and three others who have varsity experience, but will be very dependent on freshman and sophomores to step into varsity roles.....Play an independent regular season schedule..... Third year in camp.

Woodlawn, AR..... Coach Roy Ray..... Enrollment 262..... The Bears will travel to Branson in June to make their first appearance in our camp program.....Hopes are for a breakout year this winter as the team's top six players return from last year's 10-17 team..... Size is a concern and a targeted area for improvement this off season is shooting..... Rely on a hardnosed defense.
