FLY. CLIMB. TUNNEL. JUMP.
RUN. SLIDE. RAPPEL. ZIP.

We've all walked above the city, but who hasn't wondered what lies below? Slide through a tunnel into our intricate underground system webbed below Fritz's Adventure to explore shortcuts and discover the secrets hidden underneath the building!

Climb from the inside of our World War II Era plane into an aerial tunnel suspended over 30 feet above the ground, ending in the inside of a water tower. It's a breathtaking view from the top of Fritz's.

Want to feel an adrenaline rush like no other? Harness up, then climb to the ceiling where you'll be suspended 36 feet above ground. We'll pull the ripcord and you'll freefall a third of the way down, slowing down to a gentle landing. Then you get to do it again!

The City Wall challenges you to climb up the side of an industrial building, and features three brick pathways – in varying degrees of difficulty – as well as a fire escape ladder, and two full-size utility poles to climb. Reach the top, ring the bell and rappel back down.

Slide out of a shipping container, a water tank, a treehouse, or from one level of Fritz's to the next. They're fast, fun and a great way to blast from one adventure to the next!

The ultimate Fritz challenge. Dig deep, find every ounce of explosive speed you've got and see if you can make it to the top of a Fritz warped wall. We've got three of them, with different degrees of difficulty. It's not easy, but once you try you won't want to stop until you've conquered them all.

Explore a whole new world of adventure as you climb up, over and through the container mazes. You'll be surprised at the many challenges.
