The Saltshaker

BROADWAY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
PASTOR MICHAEL DUNLAP

*YOU ARE THE SALT OF THE EARTH
MATTHEW 5:13*

Michael's Moment:

You know just as I do how chaotic and stressful our world has become. We are juggling work with family and faith. News of disaster has made us weary, and many of us are shocked and dismayed at the inability of our leaders to govern with both competence and compassion. These times, as much as ever, call us to remember how important our work together is as we seek to share the love of Christ to our community, and beyond. I believe that our Methodist witness of the Gospel here in Plattsburg is so important because we are providing love, hope, and fellowship to a world exhausted by hate, despair, and polarity.

John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, wrote about doing good in a world with problems that seem too big for us to handle individually. He said, "Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, and long as ever you can." There are lots of places in the Bible that call us to do good and share love. Jesus told his disciples that love fulfills the law. Isaiah calls us to "learn to do good; seek justice, rescue the oppressed, defend the orphan, plead for the widow (Isaiah 1:17). Any religious person, pastor, or teaching that doesn't say this is wrong.

Our acts of love and goodness stand out even more in the world in which we live. The good news is that these acts can be simple and daily. Our workplaces, errands, and daily encounters allow us to shine a light in the darkness, so that the darkness will not overcome it (John 1:5). Let's try to do a good thing each day.

I want to thank each of you for your support and participation in the ministries of Broadway UMC. You are making a difference to the Glory of God for the transformation of the world.

In Christian love,
Pastor Michael

Empires Do Not Last:

A Prayer for Beloveds of God Who Are Weary of Oppression

“The Spirit intercedes on our behalf, even now, translating our litany of groans too deep for words.

Lest we lose our humanity, incline us with gentleness toward one another’s suffering. Lest we lose ourselves, o God, bind us to the example of our friend and brother, Jesus. Soften the bed of nails on which we lie, for we are tired and the road ahead is unclear at best, and we could use the rest. Commit us to the care of one another in these days and years to come.

Steady us now, o Steadfast One. With the warmth of your arms, press us onward.”

Black History Month - Dismantling Racism:

February is Black History Month, observed in the United States and Canada since 1976. It was started by Carter G. Woodson in 1926 as a weeklong celebration that focused on teaching North Americans about African American History. Today, Black History Month celebrates Black heritage, opening our eyes to racism and calling us to work against it in all its forms.

The United Methodist Church encourages our members to observe Black History Month. Only about 3 percent of United Methodists are Black, but their history and struggle for justice has left a rich imprint upon our denomination in music, worship, and justice ministries. The United Methodist Church believes that racism is sinful, and each of us promise in our baptism to “resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves.”

We encourage you to find a way to observe Black History Month. The United Methodist Church has committed to dismantling racism. Videos and other resources can be found at <https://www.umc.org/en/how-we-serve/advocating-for-justice/racial-justice/dismantling-racism-panel-discussions> that inspire us to join in efforts to end racism and work for racial justice.

During Confirmation, teenagers learn the basics of the Christian faith and what it means to be a United Methodist. Pastor Michael plans to lead a confirmation class this Spring, with the date and time dependent on the schedules of participants. Weekly participation in classes and regular worship attendance will be expected during the 8-week course.

If you know of a youth that would like to receive an invitation to Confirmation, please give their information to Pastor Michael by February 16. If you have any questions about Confirmation, please don't hesitate to contact Pastor Michael at 816-785-9188, or mdun81@gmail.com.
