Broadcast Topics (Not all inclusive, so please watch for the best info)

There is a revised copy of Teaching in the Savior's Way available on the Gospel Library App.

1st item on our Checklist:

Ask Yourself:

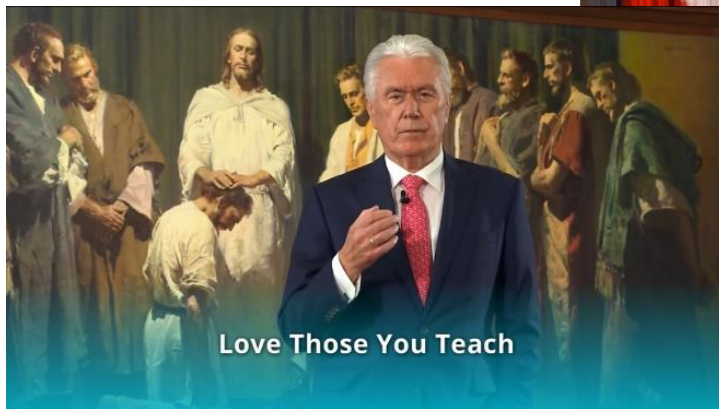

- Do I teach about Jesus Christ no matter what I am teaching?
- Do I emphasize the example of Jesus Christ?
- Do I help learners recognize the Lord's love, power, and mercy in their lives?
- Do I help learners intentionally strive to become more like Jesus Christ?

The Center of Gospel Teaching is Love God and Love Others.

2nd Item

Ask Yourself:

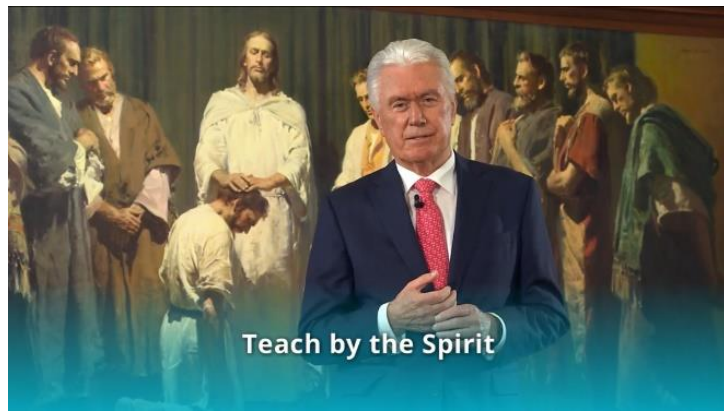

- Do I strive to see learners the way the Savior sees them?
- Do I seek to know those I teach—to understand their circumstances, needs, and strengths?
- Do I pray for learners by name?

- Do I create a safe environment where all are respected and know their contributions are valued?
- Do I find appropriate ways to express my love?

3rd Item

Ask Yourself:

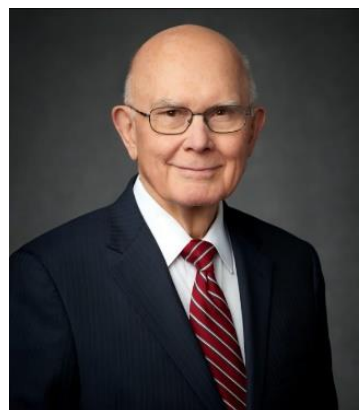

- Do I prepare myself spiritually to teach?
- Do I respond to spiritual promptings about the needs of learners?
- Do I create settings and opportunities for learners to be taught by the Holy Ghost?

Ask Yourself:

- Do I help learners seek, recognize, and act on personal revelation?
- Do I bear testimony often, and encourage learners to do the same?

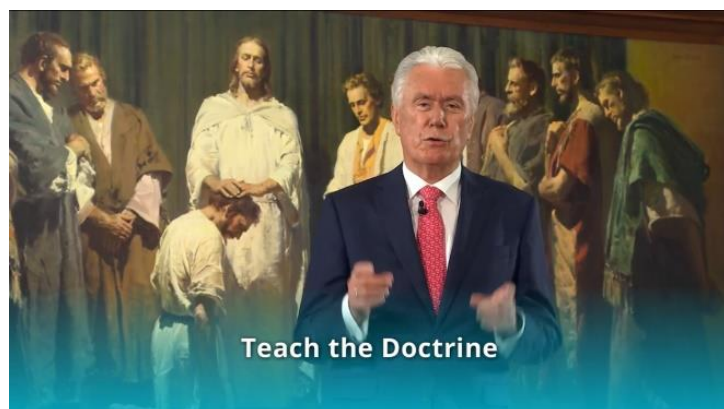

Only the Spirit can Convert Someone Elder Uchtdorf repeated this:

“Study and reason
can find the truth...,
but only revelation
can confirm it.”

—Elder Dallin H. Oaks,
The Lord's Way (1991), 65.

4th Item

Ask Yourself:

- Do I learn the doctrine for myself?
- Do I teach from the scriptures and the words of latter-day prophets?
- Do I help learners recognize and understand truths in the scriptures?
- Do I focus on truths that build faith in Jesus Christ?
- Do I help learners find personal revelation in the doctrine?

5th Item

Ask Yourself:

- Do I help learners take responsibility for their learning?
- Do I encourage learners to study the gospel daily?
- Do I encourage learners to share the truths they are learning?
- Do I invite learners to live what they are learning?
