

“WHO IS CAPTAIN KIN?”

Joaquin “Captain Kin” Cruz is a trusted boat captain, small business owner, husband, and father of five.

Known as “Captain” for years, he’s spent his life running boats, leading crews, and providing for his family through the ocean. But his work goes beyond the water. Since returning home to Guam in 2008, Kin has built businesses from the ground up, creating opportunities not just for his family, but for others in the community.

He and his wife Christina have been together for 21 years — married for 11 — raising their five children on Guam, grounded in faith, family, and hard work.

Kin is the son of Pilar Taitano Aflague (Familian Queto/Cabesa) and † Pedro Guerrero Cruz (Familian Baleria/Pedan). Raised with strong cultural values, he was taught early on the importance of respect, responsibility, and showing up for others.

Long before politics, Kin has been showing up for his community — not for recognition, but because it’s who he is.

For Kin, being a “Captain” isn’t a title — it’s responsibility, service, and earning trust. He doesn’t wait to be asked — he shows up. Now, he’s answering the call to serve — stepping forward to represent the people of Guam and fight for the future of our island.

WHY PEOPLE ARE VOTING FOR KIN:

COMMUNITY LEADER — NOT A CAREER POLITICIAN
SMALL BUSINESS OWNER BUILT ON HARD WORK
SHOWS UP WHEN IT MATTERS, DELIVERS RESULTS
HOLDS HIMSELF — AND GOVERNMENT — ACCOUNTABLE

ANSWERING THE CALL

I'm not running because I have all the answers — I'm running because I'm willing to do the work, ask the hard questions, and hold government accountable.

HEALTHCARE

A new hospital is my top priority — but it takes a team. I need YOU and 9 other senators who share the same purpose. Together, as a coalition of 10, we'll move the new hospital into construction and stabilize GMHA operations, delivering the reliable care our families depend on.

TOURISM

I am committed to balancing Guam's economic growth by expanding tourism beyond Tumon into Hagåtña and across our island.

That means investing in our fishing industry while protecting our waters; supporting local businesses that create stable jobs, and building real experiences rooted in our culture.

EDUCATION

It's time to stop talking and start building. Simon Sanchez is a top priority — from breaking ground to building walls and finishing the Sharks' new home. That means clearing procurement delays, setting timelines and holding this project accountable until its finished.

PUBLIC SAFETY

As a father, nothing matters more than keeping our communities and our children safe. I'm committed to funding public safety initiatives that do just that — backing our officers with the resources they need, while holding them to high standards and ensuring the law is applied fairly and consistently to everyone.

FAITH

Lead with integrity, and a belief that we all want what is best for each other and our families.

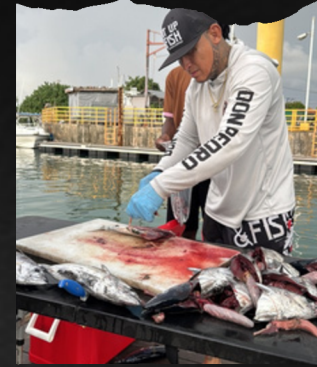

Committed to restoring trust in government through transparency and doing what's right — not what's easy.

FAMILY

Strengthen families across Guam.

- Improve access to healthcare
- Lower cost of living
- Invest in youth programs and safer communities

FUTURE

Build a stronger Guam for the next generation.

- Rebuild tourism and support small businesses
- Create real opportunities for local families
- Protect our ocean and support local fishermen
