Statements from clients...

"The decision to downsize and move to a retirement community was challenging. The referral to Stefani and the services she provided made this much more manageable! First was the "where" question. She provided us the services of a lady who could identify communities where we might be interested in moving and setting up appointments to visit. Next was the decision of what to take with us and how to move it. She provided mover options to work with us to facilitate planning and the actual move. They also did the packing and unpacking. This latter was particularly valuable! After 51 years in our home there was much in the "left-over" category. Stefani facilitated the services of an on-line estate auction to address all of this. Finally, she efficiently managed the sale of our home in a timely fashion. Result—a very smooth transition, much better than we anticipated!"

"During a very stressful time when both of our parents were in assisted living facilities unable to care for themselves, and when all the children were out of state, we hired Stefani Quintana to help our parents sell their house, get it ready for showing and assist in organizing an auction for the sale of their household goods. And she did a fantastic job with respect to all of these matters. Her communication was excellent and her efforts were always exceptionally timely and professional. But her assistance went well beyond her contractual duties. She was continuously and voluntarily taking on numerous other duties to assist us because there were so many things that were almost impossible for us to do from a thousand miles away. My parents considered her a Godsend and I could not recommend her more highly. We could not have been happier with her service, her diligence, her results and maybe most importantly her exceptional caring and kindness. If you find yourself in a similar situation, I could not imagine a better choice."
