

Cassidy Hill is Miss California Teen USA 2022 and a Top 3 finalist at Miss Teen USA, now a pageant coach, mental health advocate, and copywriter dedicated to helping women step confidently into their potential.

With over a decade in pageantry as a contestant, mentor, judge, and coach, Cassidy brings a 360° understanding of what it takes to succeed. Her background in advertising gives her a strong understanding of branding, marketability, messaging, and audience connection—all essential to standing out and winning in today's pageant world.

Autumn Harabedian is a lifelong philanthropist with two decades of pageant experience. As an Armenian woman in pageantry, she has spent years creating space for Middle Eastern girls to feel seen, represented, and celebrated. With experience as a contestant, volunteer, and coach, she brings a deep understanding of pageant tradition paired with a fresh, modern perspective.

Her coaching is rooted in purpose: helping each girl understand her story, embrace her cultural identity, and use her platform to create meaningful impact. From social awareness to personal confidence, Autumn is passionate about guiding young contestants to think bigger, advocate boldly, and shine with intention both on and off the stage.
