

A floor plan diagram of a building. The top portion is a large rectangular area labeled "Available for Lease" in blue. To its right is a smaller, more complex section with various rooms and corridors. Below the main "Available for Lease" area is a rectangular section filled with red diagonal lines and labeled "LEASED" in red. To the left of the "LEASED" area is a small section with a few rooms. The entire diagram is enclosed in a thin black border.
