

MC Introduction - Theo Kapodistrias

Our speaker today is here to discuss [name of keynote/workshop]. As a millennial, he has his own unique perspective and thoughts on what individuals are able to be seen, be heard, and make a significant impact.

Theo has made a real difference through many of his endeavours. From his days as a student where he advocated and was granted 55 thousand dollars of funding to support international students to obtain advice to prevent them from being deported, to being a legal advisor for one of Tasmania's most significant institutions, and then appointed as a global general counsel.

He is a leader in the not-for-profit space, a community volunteer, an ambassador for this state, and a lawyer. With these skills and experience, he comes to this event hoping to impart further knowledge and assist the audience to accomplish great things.

He has been recognised nationally for his legal skills and contribution to the wider community. He is the winner of several legal awards including the 2020 Young Lawyer of the Year and the 2018 Academia, Training and Education Lawyer of the Year, the 2017 and 2018 30 Under 30 winner, and has been selected as a finalist for the Tasmanian Young Achievers Awards.

He holds a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Laws, and a Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice. Now, as a professional speaker, Theo is here to share his experiences and stories to audiences across Australia and internationally.

Please welcome, Theo Kapodistrias.
