

Singing In A Mask

presentation given by Dr. Julia Nielsen

Singers are invited to attend this session wearing whatever mask they typically employ during their rehearsals and/or performances, and should (ideally) be in a space where they can sing aloud, as we will be singing throughout the entire session.

Please note: This session will not address issues of medical safety, and will not recommend or review particular masks.