ABOUT US

At James White Fitness in Norman, Oklahoma, we believe fitness is about more than physical strength, it's about building confidence, discipline, and community. Our team provides expert coaching in fitness, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, Muay Thai, MMA, and group training programs designed for all experience levels. Whether you're looking to improve your health, learn self-defense, compete, or simply challenge yourself, you'll find a supportive environment where every member is treated like family. Our mission is simple: help you become stronger in both mind and body while achieving goals you never thought possible.
