

Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild

"Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community."

President's Message

We are an ambitious group and the coming months hold the promise of so many good things.

In April we were able to reach out to the community with our appearance at the Cowboy Poetry Festival at Melody Ranch in Placerita Canyon. Quilting is such a personal form of expression that has passed from generation to generation. When we give the public an opportunity to talk about it, we help connect today's otherwise high tech lifestyle with memories of days gone by. Good memories to revisit.

At our May guild meeting we will be sewing together to create aprons for the Painted Turtle Camp. Doesn't a nice apron just make a child feel special and focused on the project at hand? We help make that happen.

At this time plans are coming together for our quilt exhibit at Hart Hall on June 6 in Newhall. I spoke about this in April, but if you missed the information please call me. Arrangements are still in the works for this exhibit, but if we would like to consider it an annual event, it certainly is a possibility.

Our June guest speaker will also offer a workshop and elsewhere in this newsletter you will find lots of information about both. Don't wait too long to sign up for the workshop, he is a fabulous teacher and it is a unique opportunity.

Now to the Annual Block Auction which is on tap for the July guild meeting. Clean out those possibly overstuffed stashes, sort through the UFO boxes and make decision about what you can donate to the guild. We then hold an auction and prove that there is always someone that loves and can use our stuff. This event raises a good amount of money for our general operating budget and has proven to be a very entertaining evening as well.

As you can see, there are lots of opportunities for participation in coming months. Volunteer, participate, join in, and meet one another. We are a great group so let's share the spirit

If you have any questions, give me a call (661-251-2222) or e-mail me at jbakman@att.net

Block of the Month

Carol Harrison was the lucky winner of the blocks at the April meeting. Congratulations Carol.

The block for June is called Peony. It's a very pretty flower block. Please give it a try.

Any questions give me a call.

Programs

Barbara Dieges presented her one person play which looked at the life of a quilter, her quilts, and her family in the later half of the 19th century. In a setting of costume, props, and music the quilts were shown and their stories told to show how A Thread Runs Through It. It was a wonderful presentation and her quilts are stunning.

May Madness - Community Service: The Painted Turtle Camp. The camp is in need of aprons for the kids and counselors to wear during their craft times. We have been asked to make very simple aprons for them. We have received donated fabrics that are ready to be cut and stitched into aprons. Please bring sewing machines and supplies, irons and boards, rotary cutters and mats, lights, and extension cords. This guild is amazing when it comes to doing for others. Please join us in May as we once again reach out our helping hands.

June: Rob Appell will present his trunk show "Quilts from the Sea and Beyond". You can see his fabulous work at rob@robappell.com. Rob will also be bringing The Cotton Ball traveling quilt shop.

Workshop: Rob will teach his Reflection Quilt workshop on Sat. June 13th at Millie's Clubhouse. Class size is limited to 25 so get your paid reservation to Kris Dolan. The fee for this workshop is $50.00 and includes a light breakfast, snacks, and lunch. Please make your check payable the SCV Quilt Guild. Many of you have already met Rob and know that he is a really fun guy and a great teacher.

July - Block Auction - Start saving your donations for the auction. Bring them to the May and June meetings!

2009 Quilt Show News

I am delighted to share with you some ideas for our 2009 quilt show. The title of the show is "If these quilts could talk..." and the theme is "every quilt tells a story." It will be held on Saturday, November 7, 2009, from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm. The show will be held in Alumni Hall on the beautiful campus of Bishop Alemany High School, located a short drive from Santa Clarita in the city of Mission Hills, at 11111 No. Alemany Drive, right across the street from Providence Holy Cross Hospital. (If anyone wants to take a peek at this location, please call me at my work number during the day, 1-818-837-5209, and I can arrange to give you a tour of the space.) With approximately 10,000 square feet of display space, and plenty of free parking, this space is ideal for our show, and we can rent it for a very reasonable price.

Our goal for the show is to have every member in the guild make and display a quilt. So, whether you are new to quilting and making your very first quilt, or have been quilting for years, please consider making something for our show. We want to see everything from itty-bitty quilts, to gigantic King Size quilts. We would love to hear the story of your quilt!!!

Interested in helping with the show??
Please plan on attending a meeting on Tuesday, June 9, 2009, at 7:00 pm at my house, 27368 Shelburne Drive, Valencia, CA.

Thanks to all of your efforts at the February sewing night we have 60 completed turtles for The Painted Turtle Camp. If you have not yet completed or returned the turtle(s) you took home to finish we would appreciate getting them back at the May meeting so that we may deliver them to the camp along with the quilts.

Many thanks to those members that took home quilts to quilt and or bind. Each step of the process is both important and necessary and sharing the load makes it seem much lighter. We have more tops to quilt and bind ...ask and you shall receive..what a great way to hone your skills!

Our May guild meeting will be another sewing night. We will be creating aprons for The Painted Turtle Camp. Helena and I will provide fabric and patterns for the aprons. We will need a few members to bring mats and rotary cutters, 3-4 ironing stations would be helpful and as many members as possible to bring their sewing machine along with basic sewing supplies, thread-white or cream, scissors, pins and a seam ripper (oh no). Thank you for the donations of bias tape.

If any of you would like fabric for any of our ongoing community service projects please feel free to contact either Helena Woodworth 257-2572 or Dana Montague at 295-0877

Opportunity Quilt 2009

The quilt is quilted (THANK YOU DONNA); the tickets are printed; the first 600 are numbered and delivered to the ladies who will be working the Cowboy Poetry Festival. We'll give you the results at our next meeting. A big thanks to all the contributors from fabric, cutting, sewing for both patchwork and appliqué, quilting and the sewing down the binding: a wonderful group effort!

One thing has come up - we purchased a stamping machine to put the numbers on tickets last year. While several of us remember using it on various occasions, no one knows where it is. If you could check and see if it might be in your possession? We have 4000 tickets to number and writer's cramp is no fun! Give me a call if you find it so I can make arrangements to come and get it!!!

Survey Update

The response has been very low to date. We would still like to know what you like / don't like, etc. The Survey will be distributed at the June Guild meeting to allow everyone to complete and return it by the end of the meeting. So, if you missed it, please plan to attend! Thanks to those who have already returned theirs! We appreciate your help.

Membership News

Dear fellow members,

62 members attended the April meeting. Congratulations to the winners of the door prizes graciously donated by Barbara Dieges, out speaker.

The new directories will be distributed at the May meeting. I will start preparing them a few days before the meeting, so if you have some information to update, and haven't done so at the last meeting, let me know as soon as you read this newsletter.

If you would like a membership card (some quilt shop honor the card with a 10% discount), please ask me at the meeting. The cards are filled in individually and handed out annually per membership year (January thru December).

Thank you, and see you soon.
