

Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild

"Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community."

From Our Co-Presidents

Left, Right, Center - who knew that could be so much fun! It was a simple game, no skill but lots of fun. We traded seats and tables after every round so it was a fun way to get to talk to people you don't usually meet. Mini groups are a good way to get to know others in the guild and I recommend that. That may not work for everyone so the occasional game night is another way to meet more people and make new people feel more comfortable. It was amazing how fast you could go from being ahead at your table to being last. You could be out of chips and, the next round be winning. Thanks to Paula for introducing a new game!

The holiday party is another time we sit at tables and face each other and have a chance to chat and get to know each other. Look for the specifics on that and plan to join us. Sit with your friends but keep a watch for the new person who may not know so many people and invite them to join your table. You could end up getting to someone really terrific.

Let's all have a great autumn and get ready for the Holidays!

Dana and Carol

Thanks!!!!

Thanks to all your generous support we were able to fill 53 shoeboxes for the Sheriff's Department to deliver to seniors at Thanksgiving time. We do not need any further donations for this project. However, the Sheriff's Department also wants to deliver quilted, fleece or afghan lap blankets to seniors at Christmas. If anyone wishes to participate, please bring any items to the November meeting and we will take them to the Sheriff's station.

November Program

Jake Finch will be our featured speaker this guild meeting. Jake lives in Simi Valley and is currently the president of that guild. Jake will treat us to a trunk show, speak to us about "recovering cash from our fiber addiction" and share information from the two books she currently has published. "Comfort Quilts for Others" features quilts that benefit Alzheimer's patients as well as specialized wheelchair quilts and much more. Jake has indicated that she would enjoy sharing a meal with our guild members prior to the meeting at the Greenhouse Cafe at 5:30 PM.

Ways and Means

I want to thank everyone who made such wonderful contributions this year to Ways & Mean. I also want to thank all of you who purchase raffle tickets. As you know this money goes to support the guild. We appreciate your interest and commitment. I hope you have all had a good year and wish you the best in everything.

Happy Holidays,
Love Carle

Nominations can still be made from the floor so if you are interested please speak up. We still need someone for Secretary. All you need to do is take simple notes at the Board meetings, write them up and write an occasional Thank You note. Please consider getting more involved.

Scholarships

One of the perks of membership in the SCVQG is the opportunity to apply for up to a $50 scholarship to take a Quilt class. After taking the class, and, fulfilling one of the options to return something to the guild, you will receive the scholarship money. For all the details please stop at the Scholarship table at the guild meeting and pick up an application.

December Holiday Party

It's official, the holiday season is here. At our board meeting this week we worked out the details for our party and here is the plan. Beth from Pincushion Boutique will join us for the evening to bring us up to speed on what's going on in the quilt fabric world. Last year she let us know about the changes fabric mills were undergoing and how it was affecting our choices in fabric. She gave us a quick primer on bamboo fabric content to caution us about the challenges of working with this new resource.

Of course, Beth's array of "sweet treats" will inspire us towards new projects without adding any calories. Her "sweet treats" are pre-selected stacks of color coordinated fat quarters that are always very popular. She has a special system that allows you to purchase additional matching fabrics if you contact her company.

Our dinner for the evening will be like last year. The guild will provide roast chicken, paper goods, and beverages. Please plan on bringing a side dish or dessert and all is complete. So many great dishes to try, it's always so nice.

Our gift exchange will be all table runners. Make a table runner in the pattern of your choice and gift wrap it. Please include a label on the outside with your name and the theme/colors and size of your table runner, i.e. Christmas, Winter, Fall, 4th of July, or ???

There are so many options for table runners and they make a quick project and won't it be fun to have someone else's beautiful work to adorn your table.

If you have any questions please give me a call.

Community Service Corner

Hi Ladies,

Not much in the news department this month but here is just a quick update.

We've finished the Horse Quilt for the "Heads Up Project" and Donna Chipperfield has again so graciously volunteered to Quilt it at no charge. They will raffle it off next year for funds for the family up Bouquet Cyn. that was burned out last year in the fire. We are also finishing two lap size tops for the 8 and 10 year old children of the same family. These are in the process of being quilted by two of our other members.

The Pillowcase Divas have completed about 4 dozen pillowcases for the Sheriff's Dept. for the children's room.

I have several quilts ready to have binding put on and will bring them to the meeting in November. If there are some of you that could help us do these, it would be greatly appreciated. Also it would be greatly appreciated if I can get any of you that have the long arms quilt some of our twin sizes for the Painted Turtle Camp.

Lola Dyroy is collecting placemats for the Seniors for the holidays. We are doing approximate sizes of 15" x 17" . but any size will do. I had some of you say you have some unfinished ones leftover from last year. Just bring them in and we can use them now. We now have about 25 for this year but the Center can use as many as we can give them. The Seniors were so very happy to see that someone cared enough to make something for them last holiday, I hope we can do the same this year.

Thanks again to the Ladies for all their help in accomplishing these tasks

November Mosaic Quilts Workshop

Our guild will be holding a workshop with Tammie Bowser on Mosaic Quilts, Saturday
November 8th, at Millie Ballace's clubhouse located at Parklane Mobile Estates. The cross streets are Rainbow Glen and Soledad Canyon Rd. Plan to arrive at 9:30-9:45am in order to have time to get in and set up.
Parking is scarce so having a friend drop you off or even carpooling may be a good idea.

You will get your pattern and fabric from Tammie that morning. Please remember to bring a check or cash for the fabric packet you ordered.

Supply List- Mat and rotary cutter, ruler,
scissors, seam ripper, sewing machine, thread, pins ect. It would be a good idea to have a couple of ironing stations as there are 21 students in this class.

Options for lunch, bring a lunch or we can order in and share in the expense.

This should be a great workshop,
Questions???

Food M-R

Thanksgiving fare-Turkey, yams, corn, mashed potatoes, etc... What I'd like to taste are those traditions you serve that I don't serve and have never had. Mom served shrimp, imitation crab salad. My sister and I still disagree what Mom put in it but we get close enough to it so that it all disappears. So...what do you serve ... Homemade or not...off the shelf or out of a jar? Hot drinks...flavored breads... sauced vegetables...pickled foods...sour cream raisin
