

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi All,

We had another wonderful speaker this past month - Cindy Myers. She inspired me to get out of my comfort zone and try paper piecing. I know I have been quilting a long time but paper piecing sorta scares me! But these beautiful quilts have given me a reason to try it. Thanks, Sue, for giving us all some wonderful speakers this year. And the list for next year is just as good!

This month the board has voted to merge together the membership dues and the opportunity quilt tickets into one payment beginning January 2019. The Membership Fee of $50, ($45 for seniors 62 and over) will include both annual dues and the $20 opportunity quilt tickets. The board decided no increase for Associates, it will still be $50.

When the opportunity quilt tickets become available, the active members will not have to purchase the first 24 tickets. Any additional tickets the members sell will be subject to the practice followed in the past. You can sell the first 24 tickets and recoup your $20 and more. If there is anyone who is unable to afford the increase in the Membership Fee, please see the 2019 President, Joyce Wilkinson, or membership chair, Pam Skaggs.

Being a member of this guild has given me inspiration, knowledge, aspirations, more quilts, fabric and great friends. I look forward each month to being with you all, I wish it was more often.

Thank you all for giving me such an exceptional opportunity to be a part of Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guilds board these last two years. Thanks sooooo much.

Quilt on,

Denise Rifilato

PROGRAMS

Be sure to come for our Holiday Party this month – where you will be introduced to the new and improved Workshop sign-up process. I will have a schedule of workshops prepared for you to sign up for starting with the December and January meetings. The process works like this:

- Review the workshop list that we have for next year – there are 8 scheduled workshops (See the list at the end of the newsletter).
- Sign up and pay for at least 3 workshops – you can pay for them when you sign up or the month prior to the workshop.
- You will get a workshop tracking card when you pay for your first workshop. I will initial your card to acknowledge that I received payment. I will give checks to the treasurer one month before the workshop – when I have to confirm with the teacher. NOTE: we will no longer hold checks until the day of the workshop.
- Sign up and pay for 3 workshops and your 4th workshop is FREE!!
- If we do not have adequate participation for a workshop one month prior to its being held, it will be canceled.

The Workshop fee has been increased this year due to teacher fees being increased. It is now $40 per workshop – but, keep in mind, that 4th workshop is free, so you can actually come out ahead!

As per usual, our January meeting will be Community Service so that any of you going to Road to California are free to attend classes there. In February, be prepared for romancing the fabric when Karen Gloeggler visits us on Valentine's Day with her lecture, Lacking Sense and Sensibility, while she introduces us to her Jane Austen themed quilts. Her workshop, Mansfield Park, is scheduled for February 16th. Mark your calendars now!!

Keep on Quilting!

Sue Bennorth

2018 OPPORTUNITY QUILT DRAWING

The Big drawing will be at the Holiday Party December 13th. Thank you, you know who you are, for going the extra mile and taking our quilt to different events and selling tickets.

Every year the guild makes an opportunity quilt and each member sells tickets. Donna Chipperfield volunteered to lead volunteers in designing and making the 2019 quilt. This was fun and I got to know several of our members. The hard part is getting someone to be the chairperson to organize a group of ladies, surprising once quilters get together it is great fun.

I have volunteered to be the quilt mom again and if anyone wants to take the quilt to an event in 2019 contact me.

I want to thank you all for doing your share selling tickets. You still can turn in your tickets and money at the Holiday party.

It's nice to know you and work with you. Happy Holidays

Your Quilt Mom,
Gerry Hogan
