

Bylaws of Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild A Non-Profit Organization

ARTICLE I – Name

The name of this organization shall be the Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild, hereafter referred to as the Guild.

ARTICLE II – Purposes

The purposes of the Guild shall be to stimulate an interest in quilts, promote and advance the art of quilt making, conduct educational programs and services in the design techniques and preservation of quilts and quilt making; and to promote quilting in philanthropic endeavors.

ARTICLE III – Non-Profit

The Guild shall be non-profit, and no part of its assets shall be used to benefit any individual member but shall be used exclusively for the purposes of the Guild.

ARTICLE IV – Membership

Section 1.

Any person interested in the history, preservation, and/or the development of the art of quilting, regardless of race, creed, sex, color or national origin, shall be eligible for general membership with full voting privileges.

Section 2.

Members shall pay annual dues determined by the Executive Board.

Section 3.

Annual dues shall be paid by January 1st of each year. Members who have not paid by March 1st shall be dropped from membership.

Section 4.

Active membership shall be maintained in the following manner:

- a. Attendance at a minimum of six (6) monthly meetings per year,
- b. Active support of activities approved by the membership, and
- c. Timely payment of dues, which includes the purchase of opportunity quilt tickets.

Section 5.

The membership roster is the property of the Guild and is provided to all members as a personal convenience. The roster will not be used for commercial or business purposes by members or others.

Section 6.

Any member who willfully violates the purposes and limitations of the Guild may be asked to resign by a 2/3 vote of the Executive Board.

Section 7.

Associate members have the same rights as regular members. Business associate members' rights are limited as defined by the Executive Board in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE V – Membership Meetings

Section 1.

The annual meeting shall be held in November, at which time new officers will be elected.

Section 2.

The Treasurer will present a proposed budget for the coming year to the current Executive Board at the October business meeting for their approval. The budget will be included in the November Newsletter and presented to the membership at the November meeting for final approval. The budget will be effective the following January.

Section 3.

The Guild shall hold at least one other membership meeting each year. Special meetings may be called by the President with approval of the Executive Board. A change of venue for any meeting shall be communicated to membership by email no later than 24 hours prior to the new venue.

Section 4.

All members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in any membership meeting of the Guild.

ARTICLE VI – Nominations

Section 1.

A nominating committee made up of three (3) guild members will present a slate of nominees to the general membership at least three weeks prior to the annual meeting. Additional nominations may be made from the floor at the annual meeting.

Only the names of those persons who have signified their consent to serve if elected shall be accepted for nomination to an office. Members of the nominating committee cannot be on the slate they present. There shall be no proxy votes.

Section 2.

The officers who are elected in November will be installed in December. They will assume their duties at the end of the December meeting. See Appendix A.

Section 3.

In the event a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the First Vice-President will assume the duties of that office for the remainder of that term. A vacancy occurring in any other office will be filled by presidential appointment until the next annual meeting.

Section 4.

Candidates for the office of President must be active members as defined in Article IV, Section 4.

ARTICLE VII – Executive Board

Section 1.

The elected officers of this Guild shall consist of: President, First Vice-President – Council Representative, Second Vice-President – Programs, Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers, with the immediate Past President and committee chairpersons, shall constitute the Executive Board.

Section 2.

Each officer shall be elected for a term of one year. The President and Treasurer may hold up to two (2) consecutive elected terms in the same office. An individual may hold only one elected office at any one time.

Section 3.

The duties of the officers shall be as follows:

President: Will preside over all general, special and executive board meetings, and will, in conjunction with the First and Second Vice-Presidents, determine committees necessary for the welfare of the organization and appoint chairpersons. Will create agendas for board meetings which will be emailed to the Executive Board at least 3 days in advance of the meeting. Will act as liaison between the Guild and the quilting industry and other organizations. Will be responsible for key disbursement. Will be authorized to co-sign checks.

First Vice-President – Council Representative: Will represent the Guild at the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds (SCCQG) and will report to the membership on its activities. Will serve as the Guild's liaison officer and meeting site manager. Will assure the Guild has a regular meeting place. Will assist the President and in the absence, or at the request, of the President, will perform the duties of the President. Will be authorized to co-sign checks.

Second Vice-President – Programs: Will oversee the Programs and Workshop committees. Will coordinate activities with Workshop chairperson and other committee chairpersons who have activities that will be presented at the general meeting, such as community service night, scholarship presentations, challenge quilt judging, and the holiday party. Will be authorized to create contractual agreements with speakers and/or teachers. Will be authorized to co-sign checks.

Secretary: Will keep an accurate record of all executive board meetings and business portions of membership meetings and will email minutes to appropriate persons for approval at the following meeting. Will collect mail from the P.O. Box and handle correspondence. Will be authorized to co-sign checks.

Treasurer: Will collect and take charge of all dues and funds of the Guild and will keep a written account of all guild transactions. Will prepare a monthly report to the membership on income and expenses, which will be published monthly in the Newsletter. Will prepare and file appropriate tax documents, raffle requests, and reports or any non-profit documentation. Will present a proposed budget, whose line items must come from existing chairpersons or officers responsible, in October to the current Executive Board. The Treasurer's books will be audited quarterly (within a 2 week time frame) by different members approved by the Executive Board. The Treasurer will provide copies to the auditors.

Past President: Will continue as an active board member for one year following the last term served. Will be available to advise the Executive Board as needed to provide continuity during that year.

Section 4.

Seven (7) members of the Executive Board will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business in the business meetings of the Guild. All members in attendance at a business

- Special Events – such as boutique or door prizes, as determined by the Chair. Coordinates collection of items, sales, setup and takedown at the Show. Returns money to the Treasurer.
- Staffing – solicits guild members for specific positions on the day of the Show such as setup, hanging quilts, white gloves, entry tables, vendor support, opportunity ticket sales, judging, door prizes, raffles, silent auction, hospitality, boutique, teardown, or other such support as determined by the Show committee. Provides name tags.
- Treasurer – is the responsibility of the elected Treasurer. Will provide seed money as determined by the Show committee with approval of the Executive Board for opportunity quilt sales, entry ticket sales, boutique, or other special event. Treasurer will be responsible for verifying totals accepted from the sales areas and reporting results to the Show committee and the Executive Board.
- Vendors – handles rental and contractual agreements with vendors who will participate at the Show. Coordinates with the Show layout designer to ensure spaces are available.
Handles vendor support the day of Show (staffing available from volunteers).

Section 3.

Other committees may be appointed for stated periods of time to complete purposes or projects. This would include special events such as the Cowboy Poetry Festival or other venues where the Guild is participating.

Section 4.

The committee chairpersons for the coming year will be appointed by the incoming President and Vice- Presidents. This process will begin with asking the existing chairs if they wish to continue. Outgoing and incoming chairs will be presented at the general meeting in December. A recommended approach is to have the outgoing President thank all committee chairs at that time and recognize the Executive Board for the new year. All committee chairpersons serve on the Executive Board. (See Article VII, Section 3 for duties of President and Vice-Presidents).

Section 5.

Committee chairpersons may make announcements at general meetings and will publish articles in the Newsletter or other media as is appropriate.

Section 6.

Bylaws of Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild A Non-Profit Organization

All committee chairpersons are required to keep their procedure manuals current and updated and to make this information available to their successors at the end of the holiday party.

Section 7.

The Executive Board and committees will generate business documents from normal activities. All historical records not in use by the Executive Board or current activities guided by the various committees will be stored in labeled boxes in the Guild's storage units and/or on electronic media. Historical records include the following:

- Business records
- Newsletters
- Existing albums
- Quilt Show photos organized on DVDs
- Inventory of storage units (defining usage in the Guild and including business records and quilt frames)

Current business records include the following:

- Procedure manuals
- Treasurer books and reports
- Secretary minutes from all meetings
- Correspondence
- Legal documents

ARTICLE X – Amendments

The Bylaws may be amended at any regularly scheduled meeting by 2/3 vote of the members present. The membership will be notified of the proposed change 30 days prior to the date on which the vote is scheduled (see Appendix B).

ARTICLE XI – Parliamentary Procedure

The parliamentary authority in all matters not covered by these Bylaws will be the "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised". The Guild will provide a copy of this book or other electronic media to the current Parliamentarian.

ARTICLE XII – Dissolution Clause

In the event of a dissolution, any and all properties owned by the Guild shall be distributed only to organizations which qualify as nonprofit under the Internal Revenue Code of the U.S. Government, and as the Executive Board selects as recipients.

Appendix A – How To Conduct Elections

September: Establish a Nominating committee at the general meeting which will prepare a slate of candidates. Job descriptions are available on the website. Each position can have one or more nominees.

October: Nominating committee will present the slate at the meeting and ask for any additional nominations. The slate will be printed in the Newsletter.

November: For each office, starting at President, then VP's, Secretary, and Treasurer, the Parliamentarian or, if absent, the chair of the Nominating committee will:

- 1) Present slate.
- 2) If all offices have only one candidate, the entire slate may be presented for approval with consent of the membership in attendance.
- 3) If only one candidate:
 - a. Candidate may give a brief statement, then leaves the room.
 - b. Hand vote is called: For or Against (count is necessary only if hand vote is not obvious).
 - c. If not accepted, accept nominations from the floor and return to Item 3 for a single candidate, or proceed to Item 4 if more.
- 4) If more than one candidate:
 - a. Each candidate gives a brief statement, then they all leave the room.
 - b. Written vote is called: actual count is necessary.
 - c. The winning candidate is announced. In the event of a tie, begin at Item 4)a. with all candidates in the tie.

Appendix B – Amendments to Bylaws

July: Establish a Bylaw Review committee which will discuss amendments. Recommended amendments must be suggested at this time, or in Bylaw Review committee meetings only. General membership may email requests for review.

August: Amendments will be presented at the Executive Board meeting; questions will be answered by the committee. If changes are approved, the bylaws change will be announced in the Newsletter and by email and available on the website home page.

September: For each amendment:

- (1) Amendment is presented.
- (2) Anyone wishing to oppose the amendments may give a brief statement. Then the committee may give a brief rebuttal.
- (3) Hand vote is called: For or Against (count is necessary only if not obvious).
- (4) The committee announces whether the amendment has passed or failed.

The schedule listed here can be extended if changes are extensive, or if there is disagreement that requires more resolution.
