

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are off to a great start with our committees for the quilt show in full swing. It is going to be a great year to make new friends as we move forward with our upcoming quilt show. It will also be an exciting time for the guild, as more and more people learn how we love to cheer and help members of our community. I had a member express that she thought this was the best guild she has ever been a member of!

Cowboy Festival is coming up and we always do very well with our opportunity quilt there. Last year we had some boutique items that also did well. We will be looking for volunteers to help for a few hours at the Festival with the opportunity quilt.

The 2020 opportunity quilt is just beautiful; a big thank you goes to the quilt committee that got it all together. We are now gearing up for our 2021 opportunity committee. See the info below.

Help Wanted

Looking for guild members to get together and share pattern ideas for our 2021 opportunity quilt.

We were encouraged by one of the owners of "Material Girlfriends " who told us they would be pleased have us use one of their patterns for our opportunity quilt. Peruse their website and select a pattern.

Meeting time, date and location to be announced. Mostly likely mid-February

Like I said it is a great time to find a new friend and help make this the best guild ever!! Don't forget there is still an opportunity to grab a couple of friends to put together raffle baskets for the quilt show.

Thanks for making Santa Clarita Quilt Guild the Best!!

Joyce Wilkinson

PROGRAMS

We has such a good turnout for January – our membership is the greatest!! In February, we will have Becky McDaniel giving us both a lecture and workshop about Applique. In March, Sarah Goer will be presenting a trunk show as well as a workshop – she is a modern quilt maker and both her lecture and workshop should be great fun!

I still need help! I need to start training some folks to assist and eventually replace me and would love to have said folks “shadow” me this year to see how it’s all done. It works really well when you share these responsibilities between two or three people – one handles the contracts, another sets up for speakers at the meetings and a third manages the workshops. I have one volunteer to help, but so far no one has volunteered to prepare to take over the job. So, please contact either Joyce or myself if you might be interested!

Workshops:

Our February 15th workshop will be Orange Peel Foundation Applique – which I believe is a machine applique technique – we still have a few spaces still left. You should be able to finish the pillow during the workshop! This workshop will take place at Kris Dolan’s house.

The March 14th workshop is Planned Improv with Sarah Goer. It is also a small project, but can be scaled to any size you want to make and you can probably get the top done in one day as well. There will be samples of both workshop projects available for viewing at the February meeting.

Keep on Quilting!

Sue Bennorth

COMMUNITY SERVICE

It was wonderful to see so many guild members at our meeting in January!

We are planning a tour of The Painted Turtle camp in the spring. These tours have been an inspiration to all who have attended. Feel free to visit their website. Come and pick up a quilt to quilt, a quilt to bind, a placemat or pillowcase. We also have items to sew for the pregnancy center.

Each item you sew earns you a chance to win a $25.00 gift certificate to Candy's quilt works each quarter.

Dana Montague, Carol Carter, Debbie Ackerman and Patti Voyles

SCCQG

January 11, 2020 was my first meeting of the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds (SCCQG). I learned about insurance and met the quilters on the board. The SCCQG is open to anyone. Anyone can see what is going on with the other Quilt Guilds from San Diego to Moro Bay. You as guild members can find out what classes other guilds are having and can attend. All this information is on the site. SCCQG brings all the guilds representatives together; guilds learn new ways of promoting knowledge and ideas and provides insurance for members and functions. There are meetings 4 times a year. Marcia Dains went to the meeting with me. We both learn so much about social media. You can read her article.

The next meeting is April 18th and it is Meet the Teachers. This is a meeting where our Program Chair can find teachers for next year classes. She will be handing out contracts to secure programs for next year.

Sonia Das is the President of SCCQG. She will be posting on the SCCQG site quilt block patterns quilters can make and where to send them for the people of Australia due to the tragedy of the Australia fires. At this point, the information is not posted on the site. I will notify our guild when I get any information.

2020 QUILT SHOW

Where Quilts and Friendships Bloom – 30 year Anniversary of SCVQG

Save the Date: June 13, 14, 2020 at Hart Park

Great News! Everything is beginning to bloom for the 2020 Quilt Show. We have 50 adorable mini-me banners and more coming in every meeting. The orders for the t-shirts have been excellent and we should be modeling them in the next couple of months. We have $75 worth of gift cards (Panera, el Pollo Loco, Starbucks, McDonalds) for our ESOB (Extra Special Opportunity Basket) and 2 vendors have signed up!!! The 40 wooden quilt stands have been checked out and are in good repair to be set up and waiting for quilts. Each month brings more exciting news for the show.

Gerry Hogan and I went to an outstanding presentation on the use of Social Media to promote your guild and Quilt Show given by Caryn Peyzant (Road to California Consultant). If you are on FB, Instagram or Twitter start promoting the show, the date and the place. Don't hesitate to post pictures of quilts that you might show in June.

In February, each member will get a summary of how to enter a quilt in the 2020 show. Be sure you have paid your dues and have set some time aside to help during the show. Quilt entry forms and quilt stories will be due at the March meeting. If you cannot be at the March meeting, details will be given how you can submit your forms.

The most recent Show meeting was Thursday, January 30th beginning at 6:30 pm at Doryce Fitzgerald's home at 29370 Sequoia Road in Canyon Country. Report from the meeting will be given at the next Guild meeting. Still need an Opportunity Basket Chairperson and two more people to help Joan Anderson with Vendors. Great chance to meet members and work with wonderful people. The schedule for the rest of the meetings is as follows:

Tuesday, February 25

Tuesday March 31

Thursday April 23

May TBD

Your attendance is always welcome!

What can you do until then??

Plan and work on which quilt you will be entering into the show for exhibit. We will need a picture and size in March (not finished but recognizable) and description

You will turn in your quilt for show on Thursday, June 11, 2020 at the June Guild meeting.

In lieu of charging members an entrance fee this year, we are asking that you may want to donate a gift card that we would put in one of our "Extra Special Opportunity Baskets". If you donate a gift card, please include the verification of validity as it will save us time double checking that money is on the card.

Again, start inviting friends to the show as 5 people per member would bring in $5000 for profit. Share the talents of our wonderful guild members.

Marcia Dains and Doryce Fitzgerald

MINI QUILT CHALLENGE

Congratulations to the round one (placemat) winners: Pam Skaggs (1st), Joyce Wilkinson (2nd), and Sheila Dutka (3rd).

Can you believe it's February already? Good news: there's still plenty of time to get your creative juices in gear for the mini quilt challenge.

Make any wall hanging, length and width between 20" and 30", any technique or combination, any embellishments, any colors, but be sure that we all can identify one of our Quilt Show 2020 themes: friendship, blooms, or 30th anniversary/pearl.

It's due in March. See, easy! Still lots of time. C'mon, quilters, have some fun! Beginners and experienced, it's a snap! Can't wait to see them.

Gabriele Leko and Penny Kendall-Lawrence
