

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Promoting the art of quilting through sharing, friendship, education, and meaningful service to our community.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the "New Year!" We have an exciting year planned, with a lineup of great speakers/teachers, the Quilt Show in June and our ongoing community projects. What a great year we had in 2019. We met our goals at the senior center, thanked many veterans with quilts, wrapped new babies in love, blessed Turtle Camp with quilts and pillows and more. We were blessed with new members but had to say good-bye to some great friends.

Hope each of you had a blessed holiday and celebrated with family and friends. This year is our friendship year as stated in our quilt show title "Where Quilts and Friendships Bloom" and it is our 30th anniversary! What a great way to celebrate and make a new friend. Grab an old friend and invite a new friend to help you where needed at the quilt show. We still need a couple of helpers to organize the raffle baskets...it is a so easy job and fun filling baskets. Don't be shy.

January kicks off our "Community Service Projects" be ready to jump into our world of helping others and making a difference!

Once again, I would like to thank all of you for making Santa Clarita Valley Quilt Guild a great organization that takes care of others in our valley and more.

With Much Love, Your President,

Joyce Wilkinson

PROGRAMS

Our January meeting is Community Service, as per usual, since so many of our members are at Road 2 California. In February, we will have Becky McDaniel giving us both a lecture and workshop about Applique. In March, Sarah Goer will be presenting a trunk show as well as a workshop – she is a modern quilt maker and both her lecture and workshop should be great fun!

Help Needed: We need our members who have a guest room and bath to step up and house our speakers! The speaker would come to your home after Thursday's meeting, hang out on Friday and leave Saturday morning for the workshop. You might include them in your household meals, but if not, they are allocated a per diem amount for food. If we can save the guild these hospitality costs for our speakers, we can have more of them. Everyone who has done this in the past has so enjoyed getting to know the speaker! Please contact me if you are willing to host.

Additionally, I need help! I need to start training someone to replace me and would love to have said person “shadow” me this year to see how it’s all done. A couple of ladies have volunteered to help, but so far no one has volunteered to prepare to take over the job. So, please contact either Joyce or myself if you might be interested!

Workshops:

Our February 15th workshop will be Orange Peel Foundation Applique – which I believe is a machine applique technique. This workshop will take place at Kris Dolan’s house. The March 14th workshop is Planned Improv with Sarah Goer. There will be samples of both workshop projects available for viewing at the January meeting.

Keep on Quilting!

Sue Bennorth

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Hope you all had a joyous and happy holiday season! January's program features our guild's Community Service Outreach. Come learn about the many organizations to which we supply various items. We will have samples available as well as kits to work on at home. We are currently gifting The Painted Turtle Camp with twin sized bed quilts, take home snuggle quilts, turtles and pillowcases.

We gift the senior center with 350 placemats (these are delivered with home delivery meal service each December), shawls and lap quilts each year. This past year we partnered with the Santa Clarita Valley Pregnancy Center to gift their families with a bundle to welcome their new addition. We gift them a baby quilt, receiving blanket, burp cloth and a bib. Veterans are near and dear to our hearts, so we gift them with lap quilts, clothing protectors as well as bed sized quilts.

We gift our participating guild members a $25.00 gift certificate to Candy’s Quiltworks each quarter to thank them for their efforts.

Wishing you and yours a Happy, Healthy and prosperous New Year!

Dana, Carol, Debbie and Patti

2020 QUILT SHOW

Where Quilts and Friendships Bloom – 30 year Anniversary of SCVQG

Save the Date: June 13, 14, 2020 at Hart Park

Thank you all for the generous donations of beautiful felt! We have plenty and will not need any more to complete the project. We have about 45 mini-me banners and certainly will accept more at the January meeting. With 98 members, it would be wonderful to have ALL represented. If you need a pattern, just let me know.

A reminder that Karen Eckmeier (The Quilted Lizard) has graciously given the Guild and its members permission to use her pattern "Colorific Quilters" as a focal point for the show. Patterns are available from her website, www.quilted-lizard.com, for uses other than the show. To maintain the integrity of her gift to us, please do not share the patterns with non-members. Thank you.

Doryce, Donna Chipperfield and I met with Eric Reifman, Supervisor at Hart Park, in December and we are set for sure to use the Hart Park Pavilion on June 13/14. We can set up on the 12th so things are settling in! I will be going to the Friends of Hart Park Board meeting on Wednesday, January 8 at 7 p.m. at the Hart Park and thanking them for their continued support in the past and looking to June. They have installed the museum hangers as we had at City Hall which will add hanging space for the show.

The next Show meeting will be Thursday, January 30th beginning at 6:30 pm at Doryce Fitzgerald's home at 29370 Sequoia Road in Canyon Country. We will be hitting the ground running! Still need an Opportunity Basket Chairperson and two more people to help Joan Anderson with Vendors. Great chance to meet members and work with wonderful people.

What can you do until then??

Plan and work on which quilt you will be entering into the show for exhibit. We will need a picture and size in March (not finished but recognizable) and description

You will turn in your quilt for show on Thursday, June 11, 2020 at the June Guild meeting.

Determine the size of T-shirt you would wear and order from Patti Vergon at the January meeting ($15.00 per shirt)

In lieu of charging members an entrance fee this year, we are asking that you may want to donate a gift card that we would put in one of our "Extra Special Opportunity Baskets". If you donate a gift card, please include the verification of validity as it will save us time double checking that money is on the card.

We already have 5 Disney tickets that we will divide into 2 other Extra Special Opportunity Baskets (ESOB)

Again, start inviting friends to the show as 5 people per member would bring in $5000 for profit. Share the talents of our wonderful guild members.

Happy New Year! Your participation in the guild and with the show is always so appreciated.

Marcia Dains and Doryce Fitzgerald

MINI QUILT CHALLENGE

What a turnout of varied and beautiful placemats at our lovely December meeting (thank you, Debbie and crew). Great job, thank you, all! Many said voting was tough. Our winners were Pam Skaggs for first place and Joyce Wilkinson for second. All placemats will be displayed at our June quilt show.

Our second challenge is now underway: a wall hanging that reflects a theme of the quilt show: either friendship or blooms or 30th anniversary/pearl; you pick. Any fabrics, techniques, patterns, or embellishments, traditional or modern, between 20" and 30" for either length or width. Remember, it's due at the March meeting, and voting will be in April. Go for it!

Gabriele Leko and Penny Kendall-Lawrence
